HAD HARD AUTO TRIP.

Drain Family From Shelbyville Arrived Thursday Night On Visit to Maryville Relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon L. Drain and sons, Ben and V. L., Jr., and daughter, Miss Katherine, of Shelbyville, Mo., arrived in Maryville Thursday evening on the Wabash from Chillicothe, Mo., where they were held two days by the heavy rains. Mr. Drain and his family were making the trip in their car, leaving their home Tuesday morning, and expecting to reach Maryville Wednesday evening. Chillicothe and surrounding country have been visited by such heavy rains that every garage and livery barn in town was full of stranded cars, and the roads were so bad that it would take two days of sunshine to put them in condition, so Mr. Drain concluded to come on to Maryville and return to Chillicothe later for the car.

They are the guests of Mrs. Drain's mother and sister, Mrs. G. W. Turner and Miss Katherine Turner, 549 West Third street.

ON VISIT TO OLD HOME.

Mrs. J. V. Embree Will Renew Childhood Friendships in Pennsylvania This Month.

Mrs. J. V. Embree will leave Monday for Pittsburg, Pa., by way of Chicago, on a several weeks' visit to her native heath. She will be accompanied on the trip by her daughter, Mrs. D. E. Mills of Chicago. On the 15th of August Mr. Embree will attend a reunion of the McGrew family, one of the oldest families in that section of Pennsylvania, of which her mother was a member, at McKeesport, near Pittsburg.

This is Mrs. Embree's first visit to her old Pennsylvania home since she came with Mr. Embree to Nodaway county forty years ago to make their home.

Police Court Cases.

Several cases were up in police court. Mayor Robey is out of the city and Acting Mayor Frank Ewing, president of the board of aldermen, heard the cases. They were J. G. Boyer, F. D. Blood and H. J. Gord, all arrested for disturbing the peace. They were fined $5 and costs each.

The cases of Charles Moore and A. O. Mason for violating the auto ordinance, were put off until next Friday.

Mrs. W. J. Staples left Friday morning on a two days' business trip to St. Joseph and Kansas City.

THE RACE IN DOUBT

WILL TAKE OFFICIAL COUNT TO DECIDE WINNER.

BOTH ARE CONFIDENT

Wm. S. Cowherd Claims It by 300, So Does E. W. Major by 300 — Will Take Several Days.

It will take the official count to decide the winner in Tuesday's primary election in Missouri for governor on the Democratic ticket. Such was the dispatch received by The Democrat-Forum this afternoon from St. Louis. Wm. S. Cowherd was confident today that he had been nominated by a majority of 300 votes.

Attorney General Major was as confident as Cowherd that he had been nominated by 300 majority, and Mr. Major expresses confidence in the outcome of the official vote, which will be sent to Jefferson City in a few days, where they will be canvassed again before a definite formal result of the vote will be announced.

BOOHER RETURNED TO WORK.

Extends His Thanks to Democratic Friends in This County Who Supported Him.

Congressman C. F. Booher of Savannah, who was re-nominated as the Democratic candidate for congressman at the primary election Tuesday, returned to his duties as congressman, leaving Savannah Wednesday morning for Washington.

Mr. Booher sent the following letter of thanks to his Democratic friends in this county:

To the Democrats of Nodaway County: I want to extend my thanks to my Democratic friends in Nodaway county who supported me so loyally, one and all. I must return to Washington, D. C., to take up my duties there and can't possibly get the time to write to all my friends.

I am gratified, too, to know that hundreds of you were so busy threshing fine crops of oats and wheat, and pleased that I was nominated, notwithstanding you were unable to get to the polls. I rejoice with you in your prosperity.

I have no word of complaint for any Democrat who opposed me. Trust we can all join hands now and roll up a splendid majority for Wilson, Cowherd, or Major, as it may be, and every man on the Democratic ticket.

JAMES GREENLEE DEAD.

For Fifty-Six Years a Resident of That Vicinity, Having Moved There in 1866.

Mr. Greenlee is one of the pioneer settlers of this vicinity, having lived here for the past fifty-six years. In 1866, when he first came here, the farm he now owns, south of town, was the tramping ground of a band of guerilla soldiers, and Mr. Greenlee points out with pride places that were of interest during the war.

James Greenlee was born in Green county, Ohio, in 1834, where he grew to manhood, later going to Indiana, and in 1858 married Susan Scott, who has been dead for several years. Two years after this marriage he moved to Hopkins, where he has since resided. Mrs. John Tatman, the only living child, has cared for her father many years, and has been assisted in her task in the last sickness, which has lasted since January, by her daughters, Mrs. Lewis Livasy and Mrs. John Schley of St. Joseph, and Mrs. O. G. Harbison of Burlington Junction, and Mrs. Ed Coleman of this place.

PAROLE WAS REVOKED.

John Merrill of Barnard Was Arrested Friday and Brought to the County Jail.

John Merrill of Barnard was arrested Friday by order of the circuit court, having broken his parole. He was brought to this city and will have to serve out a term of six months in the county jail.

Merrill was tried at the February term of circuit court for wife abandonment and was given a sentence of six months in the county jail. The court paroled him upon condition that he would live with his wife and support her, which, it is said, he has failed to do. So the parole was revoked on account of not living up to the conditions of it.

THE PLATFORM BY T. R.

What One Man Wrote About Theodore Roosevelt, the Candidate for the Bull Moose Party.

Under the caption, "The Platform by T. R.," one man in Maryville recently wrote the following:

It am I and I am it.
Other people not a bit.
Surely I've made a bully hit.
It am I and I am it.
It once was Will, but now it's Bill.
I set him up my place to fill.
So I repudiate this Will—this Bill.
The Democrats, you doubtless know,
Have pinned their faith upon Woodrow.
He's not progressive—not a bit.
It am I and I am it.
Here's to Progressives, one and all.
When you should cast your vote this fall,
Do not forget this fact, to wit:
It am I and I am it.

WILL ARRIVE SATURDAY.

The Remains of Mrs. Henry Engle, Who Died in Colorado, Will Arrive in the Junction.

The remains of Mrs. Henry Engle, who died at 11 o'clock Wednesday night at Rocky Ford, Col., will arrive in Burlington Junction on Saturday morning. No definite arrangements have been made for the funeral services, other than it will be conducted by Rev. J. W. Love, at the Christian church at that place. The remains are being accompanied by Henry Engle and two daughters, Edith and Flora Engle.

Mrs. Engle had been in poor health for two or three years. Last winter she contracted a severe cold which settled on her lungs, and her condition rapidly became worse. The physicians advised a change of climate and in June Mr. Engle took her and the two youngest children in an automobile to Colorado. They lived in a tent near Rocky Ford in order that the patient might receive all benefits possible from the dry atmosphere. She had been bedfast several days previous to the time of her death.

The deceased is survived by her husband and four children—Elmer, who lives on the family homestead west of town; Mrs. Loren Asbell of Clearmont, and Flora and Edith, 11 and 7 years of age, who were with her in Colorado.

A WORTHY INSTITUTION.

Business College, Which Opened Six Years Ago With a Dozen Pupils, Grows to Hundreds.

Among the firms advertising in today's issue of The Democrat-Forum is the Maryville Business college. The rapid growth and importance of this institution to Maryville is a matter of special interest. Only six years ago Capt. Cook opened his business college with a dozen pupils. Now he has an enrollment of several hundred each year and graduates a large number. He offers the same service and advantages that are offered by the larger business institutions of the country, with the added advantage that students are free from the vices and counter attractions of the large city. Any one desiring to pursue a course in business, shorthand, typewriting, book-keeping or any of the branches taught in this school should get a catalogue and investigate the possibilities here before going elsewhere.

Guest at Scott Home.

Mr. George Meierhoffer of St. Joseph is the guest for a few days of Miss Besse Scott.

Mrs. W. J. Sanders of St. Joseph has been a guest at the home of her son, R. G. Sanders since Wednesday night.

KNOCKED OFF A BRIDGE.

Man Sustained Broken Wrist and Sprained Back in Forty-Foot Fall.

William Bartlow, 28 years old and unmarried, employed by the Burlington railway as a bridge workman, was knocked from the top of the Nodaway river bridge, one mile south of Skidmore Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, by a chain fastened to a crane, and fell a distance of forty feet, lighting on a sandbar in the middle of the river. A physician was called and ascertained the extent of his injuries as being a broken wrist and a sprained back. It is not thought that the man's condition is serious unless internal injuries develop.

DAY SERVICE AT THE JUNCTION.

Some Talk About It at Burlington Junction by the Business Men.

The following is from the Burlington Junction Post:

M. E. Scovern, a representative of the Columbian Electric company of St. Joseph, was in Burlington Junction Friday talking with several of the business men relative to having day service from the light plant. Mr. Scovern will return here this week and take the matter up more in detail. In talking with a representative of this paper Mr. Scovern said that if every business or manufacturing firm in town that used gasoline power would change to electric there would be sufficient demand to support a day service. After the service was once running smoothly it would be used in many homes for irons, vacuum cleaners, pumping water and doing other work of that kind.

On Trip to Denver.

Misses Leatha and Edith Patterson of near Maryville, who have been attending the summer term of the Northwest Normal, will leave Sunday morning on a month's visit to Denver, Col., where they will be the guests of their aunt, Mrs. William Gile.

Col. Roosevelt has one advantage over his two opponents for the presidency. He didn't have to wait so long before he was notified of his nomination. In fact, there is reason to think that he rather expected it all along.

While the band stand is being built would be a good time to place some benches in the court house yard along the walks and give the people some place to sit besides on the fences and the curb stones.

The election is over. The next big thing is the Chautauqua, and then the street fair. Crops are fine, prosperity is smiling in the faces of all. Let everybody come out and have a good time. Then in November we will get together again and elect Woodrow Wilson president and be happy for four long years.

The progress of the new party will be watched with interest. Of all the numerous parties that have been organized to save the country, the Populists made the greatest headway. They carried a million votes and several states in 1892. No third party has done so well since. The great number of Republicans who have remained away from the primaries all over the country, coupled with the widespread dissatisfaction with Taft would indicate a considerable following for the Bull Moose ticket in November.

STAYING BY THE INS.

Of the thirteen Democratic members of congress from Missouri only one failed of re-nomination last Tuesday. This was Judge Daugherty of the Fifteenth district, who will have to give way to the brilliant young attorney Pearl Decker of Joplin. Judge Daugherty was serving his first term and was not well established.

Very few of the thirteen had any opposition for re-nomination, and were allowed to remain at their work unmolested. Judge Rucker of the Second district, C. W. Hamlin of the Seventh and W. P. Borland of the Fifth had nominal opposition, but each of them won by majorities ranging from three to five thousand. All of which goes to show that the people are getting over the idea that they must have a change frequently just to pass the ple around.

While Charles F. Booher of this district was given an interesting race by B. Raleigh Martin, he still maintains one distinction that comes to but few men. He continues to carry his own county practically unanimously. In the race this year he was given all but sixty of the Democratic votes cast in his county, and two years ago only thirty-one were cast against him there. This is a record not often duplicated.

After a residence of forty-two years in one county this is a remarkable testimonial to his integrity and hold on the public confidence. It is all the more remarkable in a man of the temperament of Charlie Booher. He is plain spoken, quick tempered and candid without reserve. He was three times prosecuting attorney of his county and three times mayor of his home town, and yet, with all these excellent opportunities to make enemies, only sixty men of his party were willing to vote against continuing him in the high place he now holds. There would have been ample consolation in this had he been beaten in the balance of the district.

Installing a Drainage System.

The first thing to do in starting to drain a field is to locate the proposed main tile drains and laterals where they will do the most good. Where the land is very flat or level, and the whole surface must be drained, a uniform system of parallel laterals leading directly to the larger main tile is the most advantageous. In the case of more rolling lands, with wet draws and ponds or low places where the water collects from the higher points, a main drain should be run up the lowest part of the field and sub-mains and laterals run from it into the wet spots. This type of land does not usually require as complete a system of tiling to thoroughly drain it as does flatter land.

After the proposed system of drains has been laid out, the next thing to do is to get the levels and estimate the cuts for the ditches. Here accurate work must be done, says J. M. Lefler in Farm and Home. A mistake in establishing the grade lines means a proportionate reduction in efficiency. Grade stakes are numbered and placed along the proposed drain either 50 or 100 feet apart, according to the surface of the field. Readings are then taken on these stakes. The cut or depth of the ditch at each stake is marked on it, and a separate record of the number of the stakes and corresponding cuts is kept for reference.

The ditch is now ready to be dug, and the accurate work comes in making the bottom of the ditch to grade. Grading by water, with the eye, or with a level and straight edge or triangle and plumb bob are neither accurate nor economical. These methods are all more or less guesswork. Two methods, however, which give very accurate work, are in common use for grading the ditch. They are the string and target methods.

STUBBS WINS OVER CURTIS

Governor Has Eighty-One Uncontested Legislative Districts.

DOUBTFUL COUNTIES WATCHED

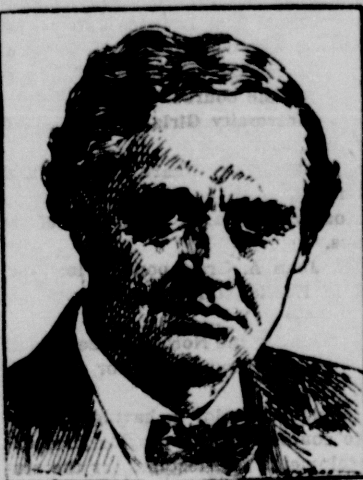

Senator Has Seventy-two Districts Undisputed and His Friends Charge Election Was Stolen.

Topeka, Aug. 9.—While Senator Curtis claims and appears to have a popular majority in Kansas, Gov. Stubbs has walked away with the Republican nomination for United States senator.

On the face of the returns available Curtis has carried the popular vote by 4,000 or 5,000 popular majority over Stubbs, but the governor has about 90 legislative districts out of the 165 and has the nomination.

Curtis Cries Fraud.

The Curtis followers, while not yet acknowledging defeat, are setting up the cry of "Stop, thief." J. G. Sioncecker, a staunch supporter of Curtis has openly charged that Stubbs was stealing the election and word was sent out from Curtis headquarters to every possible doubtful county to watch the official count to see that there were no more "thefts."

On the face of the returns received at various headquarters Gov. Stubbs has now 81 legislative districts uncontested by Curtis claims. Curtis has 72 districts not contested by Stubbs. It requires 83 districts to nominate. The returns available give Stubbs actually an even 90 districts.

Stubbs Gets Sedgwick.

Returns from Sedgwick county at midnight substantiated Stubbs' claim to two legislative districts in the county, giving Curtis only one district. The supporters of Senator Curtis had claimed he had carried two districts in the county.

Returns so far received indicate the nominations of W. D. Ross for state superintendent and Earl Akers for state treasurer, and the renomination of John S. Dawson for attorney general on the Republican ticket. Ross is running behind both Akers and Dawson, owing to a three-cornered fight, but his majority is claimed to be 8,000.

Because of the intense interest in the presidential electoral, gubernatorial and United States senatorial contests, returns were seldom reported on state offices. These returns have now begun to reach Topeka. Not all of the counties have been heard from but the nominations of Ross, Akers and Dawson have passed the doubtful state, according to figures of the Progressive headquarters.

ALLEGED GERMAN SPIES FREED

Five English Yachtmen Accused of Photographing Fortifications Proved Harmless.

Kiel, Germany, Aug. 9.—The five English yachtmen who were arrested August 4 at Eckernforde in Schleswig-Holstein on the charge of espionage, have just been released.

They were accused of taking photographs of important points along the Schleswig-Holstein coast, including the harbors and bays, but the police admit now that the suspected men seem only to have been guilty of foolhardy photography, of which they now know the risk.

England Won't Enter.

London, Aug. 9.—It is stated in well informed circles that the reason why Great Britain has not accepted yet the invitation to participate in the Panama-Pacific exposition lies in the failure of the United States to settle the question of the Panama canal tolls. Should the United States favor American shipping, it is said to be most likely that Great Britain will decline officially to participate.

Found Dead Son.

Erie, Kan., Aug. 9.—The boy who was killed by a train on the M. K. & T., near Erie, July 23, has been identified. W. E. Hollen, an Oklahoman working on a farm in Crawford county, in a conversation remarked he had a son wandering around "in this neck of the woods" somewhere. Hollen was shown a picture of the dead boy and recognized him at once as his son.

CHANCES FOR THE STUDENT

No Reason Why Their Opportunities Should Not Be Extended in Many Directions.

We have student mechanics in all the large factories and student miners in all the great mines. There are student trainmen on all the trains and student superintendents in all the offices.

Soon we shall have student senators in the senate and student representatives in the house. A student judge will sit on every bench and student attorneys will assist every lawyer.

Student social learners will attend every function and student soldiers will accompany the troops. The White House will have to be enlarged to make room for about 1,000,000 student presidents, for nearly every mother in the United States will want to send her son to the White House to learn how to be president.

Student brides and student grooms will attend every wedding ceremony and student ministers will accompany the minister on his parochial calls.

It might be interesting to know just what a student lover's privilege would be, but there is no doubt that a few lessons are sadly needed by some young persons.

Student poets would with advantage learn the gentle art of standing off the landlady and student bill collectors would find it advantageous to learn how best to land at the bottom of the stairs.—Chicago News.

Neatly Evaded Apology.

One day, Beckmann, the comic actor, was induced to take off a well-known newspaper editor, Frankel by name, in one of the characters he was representing in Berlin. He performed his task so cleverly that at the close the audience broke out into loud calls for Frankel. The journalist brought an action, and Beckmann was condemned to go to the house of the insulted party and there beg his pardon in the presence of witnesses. At the hour appointed Frankel sat in the circle of his family, together with a number of relatives and friends whom he had convened for the occasion, waiting the arrival of the delinquent. He tarried long, and half an hour had passed in weary suspense, when, at last, the door opened, and Beckmann put his head in and asked: "Does Mr. Meir live here?" "Oh, no," answered Frankel, "he lives next door." "Ah, then I beg your pardon," said the actor, and hastily withdrew, having thus acquitted himself of the imposed penance to the great annoyance of Frankel, and the intense amusement of the assembled witnesses.

Borrowing Books.

The practice of borrowing books is essentially an evil one in those who can afford to own books, and public libraries serve to encourage and foster the evil, though they are of very great value to the poor student. We think that, upon general principles, people should own the books they read. We believe heartily in buying books, reading books and keeping books. As a reference a public library serves an admirable purpose, and in many instances it is of undoubted advantage to the people. But one that would be surely profited by books should own them if he can, and should have them for companions continually around him.—Eugene Field.

MRS. NANCY HARSH

REMARKABLE WOMAN OF STRONG MIND AND CLEAR MEMORY.

ENJOYED A LONG LIFE

She Ate Freely and Believed in Keeping Warm and Dry, and Outlived All Early Acquaintance.

The funeral of Mrs. Nancy Harsh, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Donlin in Hopkins, on Wednesday, was held at Creston, Ia. this Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the home of her son, Senator J. B. Harsh. The remains were taken from Hopkins to Creston on the Burlington noon train Thursday.

The cause of her death was an attack of stone in the bladder soon after she had passed the 102nd mile stone in life. It was the first bad attack that she had experienced in many years.

However, medical treatment cleared this ailment away, but she never fully regained her usual strength, and as a result of her weakened condition she fell one day as she was coming out of her room, sustaining an injury to her left leg. After this accident she took to her bed and was bedfast up to the time of her death. One remarkable fact is that she retained fully her mental faculties to the end, recognizing those who entered her room, and interesting herself in the affairs of the home.

Mrs. Nancy Harsh was born in the town of Washington, Pa., on the 14th day of June, 1810, and was one of the descendants of William and Mary McKay. William McKay, the father, was born and reared in Maryland, but was descended from parents in whose veins flowed both the Scotch and Irish strains which have played such a prominent part in the history of the United States. Her mother came from the County Down, in Ireland, and was born on the banks of the Ban river, or as it is called in that country, on the Ban Water. Her mother left her native land when 16 year old and came to the "land of the free and the home of the brave." Mrs. Nancy Harsh was one of five sisters, and there were no brothers in the family.

Mrs. Harsh was born at a time in the history of the country when the epoch was memorable for events, and when she was yet a small child going to school General Lafayette made the remarkable tour of the country which has passed into history. It was when he revisited the United States as a guest of the nation, and in the course of his tour he visited Washington, Pa., and was given an ovation. One of the features of the reception tendered to him was when a bevy of school girls preceded him and strewed flowers along his path. There were twenty of these girls and one of the number was Nancy McKay, and to the day of her death she remembered the event with pleasure and relates with great gusto that although a number of the girls were kissed by General Lafayette she refused to kiss the general, although he offered that honor.

Mrs. Harsh lived in Washington until 1833, when she was married to Daniel Harsh, and in the year 1837 she removed with her husband to Ohio, which was at that time the Mecca of all western tourists, and although a virgin wilderness in great part, offered opportunities to the pioneer which brought to its confines many from what was then known as the east. Mrs. Harsh's husband died in 1848, leaving her with six children, none of them of an age where they could be of much assistance to her in the battle with the stern necessities of those pioneer days, but undaunted by her privations Mrs. Harsh gathered her brood about her and in the same year moved to Illinois, settling in Bureau county, where by industry and frugality she raised her family.

In 1861 she moved to Iowa, settling near Creston, Iowa, and part of her family accompanied her. In those days the railroads did not cover the state to the extent as at present, and the nearest market point was Winter set, and trips were made to Ottumwa, and to Council Bluffs by wagon for supplies. The hardships of those pioneer days can hardly be realized by the present generation, but Mrs. Harsh was a woman of unyielding will, purpose and unflinching courage and in spite of the discouragements of a pioneer life she toiled for success and won it.

Mrs. Harsh has been since youth a woman of intense religious convictions, and early in youth while still a resident of Washington, Pa., she joined the Presbyterian church and was a consistent and practical Christian. When the family moved to Illinois the family found themselves in a community composed largely of Congregationalists and joined the Congregational church at Providence, Ill. In the early days she again united with the Presbyterian church at Afton, Ia., and while living on the farm near Creston she was one of the organizers and supporters of the Pilgrim Congregational church, which is still in existence there. At Creston she joined the Congregational church by letter.

To Mrs. Harsh was born seven children, four of whom are living. The living are Phillip L., who lives at Eugene, Oregon; Mary M. Donlin, a resident of Hopkins; James B., of Creston, president of the Creston National bank, and Andrew F., of Lowell, Nebr. The dead are: William M., who passed away at Beverly, Mass.; Alexander, who went to Illinois at the breaking out of the war and died during that great struggle and gave up his life for the Union; and Jennie, who was married to a Mr. Bardell, and died a few years afterwards, at Castle Rock, Colo. Besides the four children she leaves nine grand children and eight great grand children. They are as follows:

Grandchildren—Mary Sargent, Hopkins, Mo.; Ada Hewlee, Burlington, Ia.; W. J. Donlin, Council Bluffs, Ia.; F. D. Harsh, Des Moines, Ia.; Wm. Oliver, Russell, Kan.; Mary Harsh-Atwood, Eugene, Ore.; Ed Oliver, Wakeney, Kan.; H. F. Harsh, Lowell, Nebr.; Grace S. Harsh, Creston, Ia.

Great-grandchildren—Edna Sargent, McMaster, Hopkins, Mo.; Frank Sargent, Hopkins, Mo.; Lois Sargent, Hopkins, Mo.; Josephine Hewlee, Burlington, Ia.; Nancy Harsh, Des Moines, Ia.; Margaret Atwood, Eugene, Ore.; Nellie Harsh Lowell, Nebr.; Andrew Harsh, Lowell, Nebr.

A few years ago Mrs. Harsh moved to Hopkins and made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Donlin.

Mrs. Harsh, unlike the majority of people who have reached a venerable age, lived in the present, always taking the liveliest interest in her surroundings and keeping in touch with the best of modern thought and with up-to-date improvements. Her mental faculties were always bright and she was a veritable encyclopedia of valuable information and was rarely at fault in regard to recalling dates and particulars of happenings of moment, her recollections of prominent persons who have lived and filled the stage of human action during her life were vivid and entertaining and she discoursed of epochs in the history of the country with a vigor and an insight into details which was little short of remarkable. So much was she in touch with modern thought to the end and of such vigorous mental power that her relatives hardly ever realized that she was past the century mark.

On the day of her 102nd birthday she was asked how it felt to be 102 years old and she replied she failed to realize the difference between her feelings at that time and what they were years ago. But she added that at times she felt somewhat lonesome as she had outlived all relatives whom she had known in other days, not having to her knowledge a single relative outside of her children, but what had preceded her to the other shore. She could recall hundreds of public men whom she had seen grow into prominence, but they were all dead, and of all her cousins and other relatives of her youthful memories not one to her knowledge was alive today. She said she noted that she failed to take as lively an interest in happenings as she once did, and especially the death of acquaintances failed to affect her to the same extent as in former years, probably because death to her had become such an inevitable conclusion of friendship and acquaintanceship.

Her peculiarities in old age were strong will, great determination physical strength, great endurance and "up-to-dateness" in all things. She had, like all Scotch-Irish people, decided opinions.

To show her bent of mind, she was during the Japanese Russian war on the side of the Russian, and on one occasion when visited by her son, Senator J. B. Harsh, she drew him into an argument on the subject, and she marshalled all the reasons that could be given to sustain her views. She was an ardent republican.

In matters hygienic this woman of one hundred and two years of age went contrary to the generally accepted rules. The fresh air she despised. She always shut herself up in a tight room and in the day time she always kept it as hot as she could stand it in the house. She was never known to have a bedroom window open, and even slept at times with her head covered with a pillow. She was a believer in heat and dryness, claiming that if the body was kept warm and dry, nature will cure almost any malady.

She was also a coffee drinker, although she did nothing to excess. Her favorite meat was pork, and her eating rule was to eat plenty. When she felt herself getting out of sorts or getting sick the first thing she did was to eat.

She had a memory that was something to be proud of. She had a head of hair that any woman might envy, and it was hardly white. It was what you call iron gray, and she had lots of it.

A year or two ago they had a centennial celebration in her girlhood town of Washington, Pa., and they wrote to her for some reminiscences. She recalled things that they had all forgotten back there. She located a hill upon which a man was hung that had been in dispute. She mentioned many things that were new even to the old inhabitants there.

News of her death will be received with sorrow not only by the people of this community in which she resided so long, but in communities in three other states, she being a pioneer of four states, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois and Iowa.

Protection from loss by windstorms, fire or lightning is business, either in country or city. You owe it to yourself and family. Consult me now for special rates and terms, or phone me and I will call.

CHARLES HYSLOP,
General Agent.

Mrs. J. M. Davis of Hopkins came to the city Friday morning to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Otis until Saturday.

What can you do?

Step into any bank or business establishment in the country and ask for a position, and the above question is the first thing that you will get for an answer. Hard-headed, practical and successful men, who pay their money for help have always been of the same opinion—and that is, that an employee who KNOWS SOMETHING is useless unless he can DO SOMETHING. It is our business to train you to DO SOMETHING as well as to KNOW SOMETHING.

Our school and our students have a reputation for KNOWING and DOING. "THOROUGHNESS" and "EFFICIENCY" have ever been our watchwords. We waste no time on useless studies. Life is too short. What we teach is PRACTICAL. Other schools may train you for the various trades or professions; WE TRAIN YOU FOR LIFE. No matter what you do or where you go, a BUSINESS EDUCATION is worth the money and more. Be sure you really get BUSINESS Training. We say you cannot get it anywhere but in a BUSINESS COLLEGE; that you cannot get it in any school where a little of everything is taught, and where PRACTICAL BUSINESS METHODS are unknown. BUSINESS TRAINING is our only business; it is NOT a "side line." THE SUCCESS OF OUR STUDENTS IS THE PROOF OF OUR SUPERIORITY.

Bigger and Better

We say without fear of successful contradiction that The Maryville Business College is Bigger and Better than any similar institution in this section of the Middle West. Starting with a dozen students just six years ago, it now requires more than 10,000 square feet of floor space, and owns its own $25,000 building at the northeast corner of the court house square, both floors of which are equipped completely in every detail. Our students are employed from Maine to California and from Minnesota to Florida. They get good positions, and we want you to notice that they "stick." Joe McGinness was a country boy living east of Maryville. He took a course in Bookkeeping at an expense of $50. He is now Division Auditor on the Northwestern Railroad, Huron, S. D., salary $150 per month. We have a thousand "Joes"—to be exact, 1,237—whose combined salaries in 1912 will be more than a million dollars. We can give you the names and most of the figures.

This year, beginning September 3 (Tuesday), will mark the opening of our most successful year—the biggest and the best—in our career. From all sources we are receiving inquiries as we never did before. We have the best chance to do business we ever had, and we pledge ourselves to make this the Great Big Successful Year—to enroll more students, to have more graduates, and to add to our reputation for "THOROUGHNESS," "EFFICIENCY" and "RESULTS."

We are Specialists

We teach nothing but business subjects. We name them for your information: Bookkeeping (Single and Double Entry), Banking, Business Arithmetic, Grammar and Letter Writing, Spelling, Rapid Calculation, Penmanship, Commercial Law, Shorthand, Typewriting, Briefing and Filing, Billing, Adding Machine, Etc. You will notice there is not a "dead" one in the list. We are Specialists. We do nothing else. We probably could—but what's the use in wasting time.

In conclusion, we want your enrollment. We believe that we deserve your patronage. We are a "self-made" and self-sustaining school. You pay no taxes to keep us going. You pay no "incidental fees;" you pay us $10 for each and every month, with good discounts on long-time enrollments. You will never buy it from us for less; you cannot duplicate it anywhere else for the money. YOU SAVE TIME WITH US, AND TIME IS WORTH MONEY TO ANY AMBITIOUS YOUNG PERSON (to say nothing of the man who pays the board bills). SPEND TEN OR TWELVE MONTHS WITH US, AND YOU ARE DONE. IT WILL DOUBLE YOUR EARNING CAPACITY; IT WILL PREPARE YOU FOR LIFE. We are not adding any special departments to put anybody "out of business;" we are not fighting any school; WE ARE ATTENDING TO OUR OWN BUSINESS.

SEVERE ON HIS OWN WORK

Artist Critic at Least Proved That He Was Above Suspicion of Playing Favorites.

Granville Redmond has arrived in the foremost ranks of California's artists. Being recognized himself, after years of striving, he feels competent to pass upon the merits of his contemporary artists.

Recently he left a picture on exhibition at a San Francisco gallery. In the course of the week he went to the place to see how the sale was progressing.

In company with Morcom, the picture dealer, and a few art students, he fell to discussing the pictures.

Every artist therein represented fell under the stroke of his hammer—Keith, Hill, Yard, Judson, Burdick, Short, Best, Peters, Latimer, Hansen—all came in for their share of cutting criticism. A word or two at most sufficed to finish them. Redmond made his comments the more substantial by writing them on the margin of the catalogue.

"And this," said Morcom, pointing at last to the picture painted by Redmond, "what do you think of this?" Redmond was game. He seized his paper and, quick as a flash, wrote down his criticism: "Damned rotten."

PERCENTAGE TO THE GOOD

Statement, However, Not Altogether Reassuring to the Owner of a Heavy Car.

The lightning was flashing and the thunder was crashing, and along with them were rain, hail, and a wind that threatened fairly to blow off the top of the universe. Hackley urged the car forward at a terrific pace, seeking shelter, and at last, as he rounded a turn in the road the welcome sign, Garage, was to be seen a hundred yards ahead. He stopped in front of it, and the long, lank countryman in charge swung open the doors.

"Geel!" said Hackley, dubiously, as he looked inside and took in the sad fact that this, like many other so-called garages, was nothing but an old-time barn, transformed into its present glory by a coat of paint and a swinging sign. "How about that floor of yours, mister?"

"It's a darned good floor," replied the owner, chewing on a wisp of straw.

"No doubt," said Hackley, "but is it safe?"

"I reckon it is," said the proprietor, glancing proudly within. "I've had thirteen automobiles in here a'ready this season, and no more'n six on 'em's fell threw."—Harper's Weekly.

AGRICULTURE FOR GIRLS.

Women Farmers' Club Believes Girls Should Study Agriculture—Offers $25 Cash Scholarship.

The Missouri Women Farmers' club has started a movement to interest girls in the study of agriculture—not merely caring for flowers or managing a vegetable garden, but real agriculture involving a knowledge of soils, crops, live stock, fruit, poultry and dairy products.

In order to start the movement the club offers a $25 cash scholarship in the short course in agriculture to the Missouri woman over 18 years of age who will write the best essay of from 450 to 800 words on the subject "Why Women Should Study Agriculture." This should pay one-half the expense incurred in one term of the two-year winter course in agriculture.

Every young woman who would like to take advantage of this offer should write for a copy of the rules governing the contest to A. J. Meyer, superintendent of short courses, Columbia, Mo.

Mrs. Stella Lawson went to Bolckow Thursday evening to visit her cousin, Mrs. William Manorgan.

Home Health Club

By DR. DAVID H. REEDER,
LaPorte, Ind.

Suggestion for hot weather—It is timely to make suggestions concerning the dangerous maladies common to hot weather and offer means of prevention and cure of sickness and accidents common to this period of the year. Do not underestimate the importance of this article. Keep it. You may need it at any moment.

These are the days when the fool-killer should be busy and get after the one who points the gun that "is not loaded" at you, and his twin brother who rocks the boat to be funny. If they would but try this when alone all would be well.

At this season, keep cool, mind and body. When it is hot one should be neither overworked or overheated. Never over-eat. Dress in keeping with the weather. Bathe often. Use sanitary means to keep free from anything which is liable to breed disease and you will live longer and better than does the person who fails to observe these rules of health.

Sunstroke—Be careful not to encourage sunstroke. Fatal results often follow exposure to sun heat on days when the atmosphere is humid. Avoid as far as possible getting into the direct rays of the sun or becoming over-heated. Do not drink alcoholic liquors nor eat much of hearty foods. One has often warning, such as loss of appetite, headaches, and general indisposition. The heart's action is often weak and breathing difficult. These suggestions should be heeded. The person should seek a shady, cool place, bathe the temples and wrists in cool water, keep quiet and rest.

In the event of sunstroke, place the patient in the shade, loosening clothing; give plenty of air; do not allow people to crowd about. Bathe the head, neck, chest and hands in warm water and relieve the heart and lungs of the internal congestion. In other words try to get the blood to the surface. Use hot infusions, of red pepper, or ginger, or mustard plaster on the spine, extremities and on the stomach.

Convalescence is usually slow, and the patient is much more liable to repeated attack than before. Sprinkle water on the face, and apply smelling salts to the nostrils, then place in cool, shady place for a few hours.

Sour stomach, heartburn—Due to acidity from sour foods, or the acidity caused by fermentation of foods; an excellent remedy is a tablet composed of charcoal, pepsin, ginger and magnesia, and a half a cup of water. Do not eat candy, cakes, etc., for a time at least.

Dysentery (acute stage)—Indicated remedies, powdered ipecac, twenty grains in four ounces of flaxseed tea. Keep patient quiet in bed. Place hot applications to abdomen and feet. After acute stage injections of thin boiled starch are beneficial.

Summer Food—In hot weather you will find in rice cooked in various ways a most satisfactory article of diet. It is an excellent substitute for the heavy and unhealthy meats often indulged in. It is nourishing, and particularly healthful. Get used to eating rice in some of its very palatable forms of cookery. Do not be afraid that it will not sustain you, for it will, and it will be particularly desirable in hot weather, as it does not tax the digestive organs. Remember that in China, over 400,000,000 people subsist chiefly on rice. A rice pudding with raisins is a good dish, which is sufficient itself to constitute a meal.

Keep a bottle of peroxide of hydrogen handy to prevent infection from the numberless causes present in the summer time for cuts, wounds, scratches, sores, stings of insects, rusty nails, or anything in which the skin is abraded or the flesh punctured, allowing germs to infect the wound.

Club Notes.

Dear Doctor: I have been reading with interest your Home Health Club articles and would like to know what you can say in regard to my own case. I am a man 54 years old. My general health has not been good for some years, especially the last two years. I have never been down bed-fast, but am weak and rather frail, subject to rheumatism and stomach trouble. Have headache a great deal, am easily exhausted, appetite hard to control. What I wish to speak of more particularly is a roaring in my head. For about four weeks I have had a constant roaring, sounding like the hum of a telephone pole, in my head. It annoys me very much. I went to the doctor and had my ears examined, but he found nothing wrong; he said that the trouble came from a general run-down condition. If I have not made my case plain, I will write fuller description.

M. H. R.

You tell the story quite plainly. The entire cause of your suffering is in your stomach, not only a radical change of diet, but absolutely control of your appetite must occur before results will appear. I would, if I were to direct your specific treatment, first outline a complete and specific dietary, but before beginning its use, I would clean out the entire alimentary canal, by a fast of from three to six days, or until your tongue would present a clean and healthy appearance. Then begin the new diet in a very careful manner, and you would soon begin to gain both strength and flesh. The roaring in the head would quickly disappear. Of course a careful and thorough physical examination is always advisable in such cases as these are sometimes causes for illness which can be found in no other way.

All readers of this publication are at liberty to write for information pertaining to the subject of health at any time. Address all communications to the Home Health Club, La Porte, Indiana, U. S. A., with name and address.

Bratcher, 1202 East Sixth street, Maryville, Mo., says: "We have used Doan's Kidney Pills several years for the cure of backache and kidney trouble and are glad to say that they are fully up to the claims made for them. I have had kidney complaint, and the use of Doan's Kidney Pills has relieved me on several occasions. I obtained this remedy at Love's drug store (now Love & Gaugh's drug store), and would not be without a supply in the house."

FLAMES KILLED HAITI'S RULER

President Leconte Perished in Fire Which Destroyed Palace.

DEAD AND INJURED NUMBER 400

Ammunition Stored in Cellar Exploded—Executive's Body Cannot be Recovered—Successor Already Named.

Port au Prince, Haiti, Aug. 9.—Gen. Cincinnatus Leconte, president of the Republic of Haiti, perished in a fire which destroyed the national palace. It was caused by an explosion of the powder magazine attached to the palace.

The explosion occurred at 3:15 o'clock in the morning and the shock shattered the palace.

Fire followed quickly and the palace, a wooden structure, was consumed within half an hour. There were a great number of explosions of munitions of war which had been stored in the cellar below.

Other Houses Damaged. All the houses around the palace were greatly damaged but as the palace itself was isolated, the firemen succeeded in their efforts to localize the fire.

The members of the family of the president, all of whom were in the palace at the time, were saved, but President Leconte himself perished.

Many palace attendants were killed and it is estimated the casualty list will reach 400, killed and injured.

The first explosion was followed by others when the fire reached the cellars of the palace where a great quantity of ammunition was stored. So great was the force of the explosion that a number of small cannon, fragments of iron and shells were thrown for great distances in all directions.

Body Entirely Destroyed. When the fire which was confined to the palace, was extinguished the structure was a mass of ruins from which it will be impossible to recover the body of the president.

No disorders have occurred. The military authorities are maintaining order in the town.

Both the chamber and the senate were called in national assembly and at the joint session in the afternoon Gen. Tancrede Auguste, senator and former minister of public works, was named as president of Haiti to succeed Gen. Cincinnatus Leconte.

The cause of the explosion has not been explained.

ROW OVER TEMPORARY CAPITOL

Jefferson City, Aug. 9.—The question of permitting wreckers to demolish the old state capitol building is in dispute. The commissioners of the new capitol asked that the board of commissioners of the permanent seat of government delegate them authority to wreck the old capitol at once, and authority over the grounds to construct temporary quarters for the legislature.

Acting Gov. Gmelch and State Treasurer Cowgill protested against the demolition of the old building at this time, as plans for the new building cannot be adopted before September 16. Auditor Gordon and Secretary of State Roach voted to give the commissioners all the authority they asked. Attorney General Major, the other member of the board, was not present.

Meantime, while the legislative committee has awarded a contract for building temporary quarters for the general assembly, the building is without a location, as well as without available funds to pay for its construction.

Atchison Has $100,000 Fire.

Atchison, Kan., Aug. 9.—The factory and the warehouse of the Atchison Oatmeal and Cereal company, a branch of the United Oatmeals company of Chicago, were destroyed by fire. The plant was valued at $100,000. It was covered by $75,000 insurance. Lighting started the flames.

Gen. Orozco Wants Peace.

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 9.—Gen. Orozco has submitted a peace proposal to the Madero government, but the terms are not divulged. It is no longer denied by the rebels that they held a conference with Gen. Hernandez, minister of fomento, at a point opposite the El Paso smelter Wednesday.

A School for German Jailers.

Berlin, Aug. 9.—A school for jailers is to be established in Germany under an order issued by the department of justice. Instruction will be given to guards, keepers and attendants of all sorts. The object is not only to have the prisons efficiently run, but the prisoners reformed.

Two Killed in a Wreck.

Boston, Aug. 9.—Two persons were killed and 20 injured when a train on the Plymouth division of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad was derailed near the Crescent avenue station, Dorchester, on the border of a marsh.

HUNDREDS ENTOMBED IN MINE

MANY BODIES RECOVERED FROM GERMAN DISASTER.

Explosion of Fire Damp Imperilled Lives of 650—Flames Keep Rescuers Back.

Bochum, Germany, Aug. 9.—A mining disaster which imperilled the lives of 650 pit men occurred in the Lorraine pit in the vicinity of the village of Gerthe.

Many of the men were rescued but at a late hour it was learned that 103 had been killed.

Forty bodies had been recovered and the rescue parties were unable to enter the gallery in which the fire damp explosion occurred, where it was believed from 50 to 100 men were still entombed and had almost certainly perished.

A large number of those rescued were suffering from severe injuries and it was expected that many of them could not recover.

The rescue detachments which did such good work at the time of the French mine disaster at Courrières near Lens, March 10, 1906, when 1,236 miners were killed, arrived here early in the afternoon, but were unable to penetrate the galleries owing to the flames and the poisonous gases.

SUFFRAGISTS MENACE ENGLAND

Five Year Sentence of Two Women Causes Apprehension of Attempts at Assassination.

London, Aug. 9.—Suffragists who have distinguished themselves by past demonstrations of militancy are all under police surveillance in anticipation of retaliation by the women for the sentencing of Mrs. Mary Leigh and Miss Gladys Evans to five years' penal servitude for an attempt to burn the Theater Royal in Dublin.

The militants said freely that the government's resort to such extreme measures has precipitated a crisis and that the country may be prepared for anything. The police know that these threats are not empty and it is unofficially admitted at Bow street that the liveliest apprehension is felt there of attempts at assassination.

In making actual convicts for long terms out of two educated and refined women whose offense was, after all, most persons agree, a political one, the courts seem to have gone too far for popular approval. It is widely predicted that the home office will have to pardon the Dublin prisoners in deference to this sentiment.

PLENTY OF FEED BUT NO CATTLE

Dean Webster, of Kansas Agricultural College, Worried Over Condition in West.

Manhattan, Kan., Aug. 9.—In direct contrast to conditions last year western Kansas will have plenty of feed this fall and winter, but nothing to feed. That serious shortage of live stock—a 60 to 85 per cent decrease in many places, caused by the lack of feed last winter—is the subject of grave concern to Dean Webster of the Kansas agricultural college and four department heads who have just returned from a 1,500-mile trip by motor car through 25 western counties. Two weeks were spent investigating conditions.

VOTE ON BIG ROAD BOND ISSUE

Buchanan County Will Decide Saturday Proposition Involving $1,000,000 Expenditure.

St. Joseph, Mo., Aug. 9.—Buchanan county will vote Saturday on the proposed million dollar bond issue for good roads. Despite keen interest in the primary campaign ended Tuesday, sentiment throughout the country has been aroused for the bond issue and the county has been thoroughly covered with arguments in its favor.

Under the state law the county court may tax property as high as 25 cents on the $100 valuation for good roads. The tax is now 15 cents. The county court has announced that it will raise the tax to the limit if the bond issue fails.

Made Bogus Coin in Prison.

Salem, Ore., Aug. 9.—An attempt to pass a counterfeit coin in several stores by John Lewis, a negro trusty at the state penitentiary, led investigators to find that the coins were manufactured by J. J. Stanley, a convict paintshop worker. Plaster of paris molds were found in his possession.

Tank Fell Among Shop Girls.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 9.—Three girls were killed and a dozen severely injured when a water tank on the Union American Cigar company's building crashed through the roof and the sixth and fifth floors.

Started Fire With Coal Oil.

FREE CANAL FOR AMERICAN SHIPS

Senate Makes Further Concessions in Panama Ditch.

FOREIGN BUILT VESSELS ALSO

Amendment Authorizes American Owners of Boats Built Abroad to Register Here Under Certain Restrictions.

Washington, Aug. 9.—Further important concessions to American shipping were made by the senate through amendments to the Panama canal bill.

The free toll provision to American coastwise ships, already indorsed by the senate, was supplemented by a qualified free toll provision for American vessels engaged in the foreign trade.

Foreign Ships Invited.

A still more important amendment adopted by the senate holds out practically an unqualified invitation to foreign built ships owned by Americans to hoist the American flag and register as American vessels.

This amendment, offered by Senator Williams, and adopted by a large vote, would authorize American owners of foreign built ships, now compelled to sail under foreign flags, to bring their vessels under American registry provided they engaged only in foreign trade.

Fight Railroad Control.

The senate worked at night on the railroad control feature of the Panama bill. Senator Bristow opposed the plan of railroad controlled vessels suggested by the senate committee and urged the adoption of the plan passed by the house which would give the interstate commerce commission jurisdiction.

One important restriction was placed upon the Williams free ship amendment just adopted. This provided that no foreign built ship admitted to American registry should be allowed to participate in mail carrying contracts unless it was constructed with particular reference to speedy and economical conversion into an auxiliary naval cruiser.

Made Provision for War.

A somewhat similar restriction was made upon the granting of the free toll privilege to American vessels engaged in foreign trade. The provision adopted by the senate specified that owners of vessels engaged in foreign trade must agree to sell their ships to the United States in time of war or other emergencies in order to be exempt from the payment of tolls when passing through the canal.

Agreement was reached late at night to take a final vote on the Panama canal administration bill and all amendments to it immediately.

JEALOUSY CAUSED DEATH OF TWO

Bodies of Young Girls Found Near Cabin Home—Missing Relative Suicides.

Weaverville, Cal., Aug. 9.—Kate Gould, 13 years old, and Elba Gould, 16 years old, sisters, were found murdered at their home at Steiny's Flat. They had been shot. The cabin where the body of Elba Gould was found showed that the girl had made a desperate struggle for life. The body of the younger girl was found 50 feet away.

The girls were daughters of Mrs. William Lorenz by a former marriage. George Lorenz, brother of William Lorenz, is said to have been insanely jealous of Elba Gould. He was left at home with the girls and had disappeared but later committed suicide while posing were hunting for him. His body was found half a mile from the place of the murder.

SUFFRAGIST WOULD SERVE FREE

Spokane Woman, if Elected, Will Accept No Pay for Services as State Representative.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 9.—Mrs. May Arkwright Hutton, suffragist leader and member of the Democratic national convention, announced she would be a candidate for nomination for state representative on the Democratic ticket.

Mrs. Hutton, in making the announcement, declared that, if elected, she would refuse to accept pay for her services as a lawmaker, as it would cost her no more to live at the state capital than at home. She feels that she can well afford to give 60 days of her time for the honor of exercising the prerogative of an American citizen.

SALUTED COLORS HE LOVED

Patriotic Action of Old Man Made Deep Impression on Soldiers From the Front.

There is so much that is painful and distressing about war that every soldier who has served at the front must bring back with him many memories that he would gladly forget. But there are gracious and touching incidents as well, one of which a Companion subscriber who fought through the Civil war thus recalls:

"Just after the second Battle of Bull Run and that of Chantilly, while the Union army lay near Alexandria and Fairfax Court House, a certain Massachusetts battery was ordered back to Washington to help garrison the capital.

"On the outskirts of Alexandria the column was halted, with its head opposite a little story-and-a-half cottage surrounded by an unpainted picket fence. As the halt was ordered, the door of the cottage opened, and old, white-haired man came down the steps toward the road with his hand raised toward the flag was carried as the guidon of the battery.

"The color-bearer released the staff from its socket and lowered it to the ground, and the old man, who had by this time come up to the line, drew the flag toward him, reverently raised it to his lips, turned, and without a word walked back into house.

The incident made a deep impression on the men who saw it. It meant more to those soldiers, who were bearing the brunt of a hard campaign, than a score of eloquent addresses on patriotism and the love of country. Who the old man was we never knew."—Youth's Companion.

SMALL BOY GOOD REASONER

Present-Day Conditions Applied to Biblical Incident Showed Power of Deduction.

The Sunday school class of an Indianapolis church, which was made up of small boys, was discussing Lot and how he came to be in Sodom. The teacher told how Abram and Lot had decided to separate and take their flocks and servants in opposite directions as the best land, which lay in the direction of Sodom, which was afterward destroyed by fire. The teacher, a man, did not believe in clothing the talk concerning biblical characters in mystery or phrases that the small boys could not understand, but tried to make them realize that the men of biblical times were subject to the same conditions and influences as are people of today.

"Now, boys," he said, "Lot was not a real bad man. He didn't plunge into the wickedness of Sodom immediately. After he left Abram he, no doubt, lived with his family and servants in his tents far outside of the wicked city of Sodom. Then he began to go to the city occasionally. Then he went oftener, until he came to believe that it was a good place to live in. When the city was destroyed the angels of the Lord led him out of the city."

"Now, James," said the teacher, "I want you tell me in your own way how you think Lot came to be in Sodom."

"He—he lived in the country at first," replied James, "and didn't come to town at all. Then he got to coming just once a while—on—on Saturday nights when everybody got paid. And then he got to coming through the week, to the ball game, or things like that. And one day, maybe, he came home and said: 'Well, I saw a nice vacant house in Sodom this afternoon and I told the transfer man to come out tomorrow and get our stuff. That's the way I think Lot came to live in Sodom,' concluded James, as he gave a long sigh and sat down.

TRY GIVING JOY TO OTHERS

Shedding of Sunshine Will Be Found to Have Good Effect on Those Who Practice It.

It was Mr. Barrie who quaintly said: "Women who bring sunshine into the life of others cannot keep it from themselves."

That is a recipe to learn and apply. If you will not try to be a spreader of joy for the joy it gives do so from selfish motives.

Girls may think this farfetched. Their one thought is to snatch at joy for themselves. It takes experience, perhaps bitter experience, to learn that the joy that counts most is the one with a rebound. Like a rubber ball, the harder you throw it the quicker it returns.

The girl who starts on a joy quest for herself cannot say: "I'll be nice to poor Maria, she has had such a stupid time," and then go about her sunshine shedding with patronizing airs. She may give joy, but the chances are that her patronage will be felt and resented. The sunshine that counts glows in the heart and must come out.

One need not go into sunshine societies to bask in the rays of joy giving. Nor need that sunshine be for outsiders. Sunshine-shedding, like charity, can profitably begin at home. It is not so exciting, perhaps, to try to brighten the lives of mother or small brother or sister as it is to be a Lady Bountiful, but the reflex action is quite as strong.

Try shedding sunshine wherever you are. Do not let a day pass without doing some little thing to brighten that day for some one else, and you will find your day more joyful.

HAD HARD AUTO TRIP.

Drain Family From Shelbyville Arrived Thursday Night On Visit to Maryville Relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon L. Drain and sons, Ben and V. L., Jr., and daughter, Miss Katherine, of Shelbyville, Mo., arrived in Maryville Thursday evening on the Wabash from Chillicothe, Mo., where they were held two days by the heavy rains. Mr. Drain and his family were making the trip in their car, leaving their home Tuesday morning, and expecting to reach Maryville Wednesday evening. Chillicothe and surrounding country have been visited by such heavy rains that every garage and livery barn in town was full of stranded cars, and the roads were so bad that it would take two days of sunshine to put them in condition, so Mr. Drain concluded to come on to Maryville and return to Chillicothe later for the car.

They are the guests of Mrs. Drain's mother and sister, Mrs. G. W. Turner and Miss Katherine Turner, 549 West Third street.

ON VISIT TO OLD HOME.

Mrs. J. V. Embree Will Renew Childhood Friendships in Pennsylvania This Month.

Mrs. J. V. Embree will leave Monday for Pittsburg, Pa., by way of Chicago, on a several weeks' visit to her native heath. She will be accompanied on the trip by her daughter, Mrs. D. E. Mills of Chicago. On the 15th of August Mr. Embree will attend a reunion of the McGrew family, one of the oldest families in that section of Pennsylvania, of which her mother was a member, at McKeesport, near Pittsburg.

This is Mrs. Embree's first visit to her old Pennsylvania home since she came with Mr. Embree to Nodaway county forty years ago to make their home.

Police Court Cases.

Several cases were up in police court. Mayor Robey is out of the city and Acting Mayor Frank Ewing, president of the board of aldermen, heard the cases. They were J. G. Boyer, F. D. Blood and H. J. Gord, all arrested for disturbing the peace. They were fined $5 and costs each.

The cases of Charles Moore and A. O. Mason for violating the auto ordinance, were put off until next Friday.

Mrs. W. J. Staples left Friday morning on a two days' business trip to St. Joseph and Kansas City.

THE RACE IN DOUBT

WILL TAKE OFFICIAL COUNT TO DECIDE WINNER.

BOTH ARE CONFIDENT

Wm. S. Cowherd Claims It by 300, So Does E. W. Major by 300 —WHI Take Several Days.

It will take the official count to decide the winner in Tuesday's primary election in Missouri for governor on the Democratic ticket. Such was the dispatch received by The Democrat-Forum this afternoon from St. Louis. Wm. S. Cowherd was confident today that he had been nominated by a majority of 300 votes.

Attorney General Major was as confident as Cowherd that he had been nominated by 300 majority, and Mr. Major expresses confidence in the outcome of the official vote, which will be sent to Jefferson City in a few days, where they will be canvassed again before a definite formal result of the vote will be announced.

BOOHER RETURNED TO WORK.

Extends His Thanks to Democratic Friends in This County Who Supported Him.

Congressman C. F. Booher of Savannah, who was re-nominated as the Democratic candidate for congressman at the primary election Tuesday, returned to his duties as congressman, leaving Savannah Wednesday morning for Washington.

Mr. Booher sent the following letter of thanks to his Democratic friends in this county:

To the Democrats of Nodaway County: I want to extend my thanks to my Democratic friends in Nodaway county who supported me so loyally, one and all. I must return to Washington, D. C., to take up my duties there and can't possibly get the time to write to all my friends.

I am gratified, too, to know that hundreds of you were so busy threshing fine crops of oats and wheat, and pleased that I was nominated, notwithstanding you were unable to get to the polls. I rejoice with you in your prosperity.

I have no word of complaint for any Democrat who opposed me. Trust we can all join hands now and roll up a splendid majority for Wilson, Cowherd, or Major, as it may be, and every man on the Democratic ticket.

C. F. BOOHER.

Costello is also building a new store building at the Junction.

Mrs. N. F. Humber and sister, Mrs. G. W. Bowmer, were guests of their brother, A. R. Estes, and family, three miles west of Maryville, Wednesday.

JAMES GREENLEE DEAD.

For Fifty-Six Years a Resident of That Vicinity, Having Moved There in 1866.

James Greenlee died at 1:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Tatman, south of Hopkins. The funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the late residence at 2 o'clock, Rev. Griffith of the Baptist church conducting the services, burial in White Oak cemetery.

Mr. Greenlee is one of the pioneer settlers of this vicinity, having lived here for the past fifty-six years. In 1866, when he first came here, the farm he now owns, south of town, was the tramping ground of a band of guerilla soldiers, and Mr. Greenlee points out with pride places that were of interest during the war.

James Greenlee was born in Green county, Ohio, in 1834, where he grew to manhood, later going to Indiana, and in 1858 married Susan Scott, who has been dead for several years. Two years after this marriage he moved to Hopkins, where he has since resided. Mrs. John Tatman, the only living child, has cared for her father many years, and has been assisted in her task in the last sickness, which has lasted since January, by her daughters, Mrs. Lewis Livasy and Mrs. John Schley of St. Joseph, and Mrs. O. G. Harbison of Burlington Junction, and Mrs. Ed Coleman of this place.

Funeral at Guilford.

The funeral services of Mrs. Lizzie Henderson Sharp, who died at her home in Cawood Tuesday night, were held Thursday afternoon in Guilford, by Elder A. R. Hunt of the Christian church of Savannah. Burial in the Weatherman cemetery. The deceased was 59 years old and is survived by several children, all nearly grown. A sister, Mrs. James L. Lemaster, lives near Guilford.

A marriage license was issued Thursday to Earl McKinney of Skidmore and Lella Pearl Middleton of Maryville.

PAROLE WAS REVOKED.

John Merrill of Barnard Was Arrested Friday and Brought to the County Jail.

John Merrill of Barnard was arrested Friday by order of the circuit court, having broken his parole. He was brought to this city and will have to serve out a term of six months in the county jail.

Merrill was tried at the February term of circuit court for wife abandonment and was given a sentence of six months in the county jail. The court paroled him upon condition that he would live with his wife and support her, which, it is said, he has failed to do. So the parole was revoked on account of not living up to the conditions of it.

THE PLATFORM BY T. R.

What One Man Wrote About Theodore Roosevelt, the Candidate for the Bull Moose Party.

Under the caption, "The Platform by T. R.," one man in Maryville recently wrote the following:

It am I and I am I,
Other people not a bit.
Surely I've made a bully hit.

It am I and I am I,
It once was Will, but now it's Bill.
I set him up my place to fill.

So I repudiate this Will—this Bill.
The Democrats, you doubtless know,
Have pinned their faith upon Woodrow.

He's not progressive—not a bit.
It am I and I am I.
Here's to Progressives, one and all.

When you should cast your vote this fall,
Do not forget this fact, to wit:
It am I and I am I.

WILL ARRIVE SATURDAY.

The Remains of Mrs. Henry Engle, Who Died in Colorado, Will Arrive in the Junction.

The remains of Mrs. Henry Engle, who died at 11 o'clock Wednesday night at Rocky Ford, Col., will arrive in Burlington Junction on Saturday morning. No definite arrangements have been made for the funeral services, other than it will be conducted by Rev. J. W. Love, at the Christian church at that place. The remains are being accompanied by Henry Engle and two daughters, Edith and Flora Engle.

Mrs. Engle had been in poor health for two or three years. Last winter she contracted a severe cold which settled on her lungs, and her condition rapidly became worse. The physicians advised a change of climate and in June Mr. Engle took her and the two youngest children in an automobile to Colorado. They lived in a tent near Rocky Ford in order that the patient might receive all benefits possible from the dry atmosphere. She had been bedfast several days previous to the time of her death.

The deceased is survived by her husband and four children—Elmer, who lives on the family homestead west of town; Mrs. Loren Asbell of Clearmont, and Flora and Edith, 11 and 7 years of age, who were with her in Colorado.

A WORTHY INSTITUTION.

Business College, Which Opened Six Years Ago With a Dozen Pupils, Grows to Hundreds.

Among the firms advertising in today's issue of The Democrat-Forum is the Maryville Business college. The rapid growth and importance of this institution to Maryville is a matter of special interest. Only six years ago Capt. Cook opened his business college with a dozen pupils. Now he has an enrollment of several hundred each year and graduates a large number. He offers the same service and advantages that are offered by the larger business institutions of the country, with the added advantage that students are free from the vices and counter attractions of the large city. Any one desiring to pursue a course in business, shorthand, typewriting, bookkeeping or any of the branches taught in this school should get a catalogue and investigate the possibilities here before going elsewhere.

Guest at Scott Home.

Mr. George Meierhoffer of St. Joseph is the guest for a few days of Miss Besse Scott.

Mrs. W. J. Sanders of St. Joseph has been a guest at the home of her son, R. G. Sanders since Wednesday night.

KNOCKED OFF A BRIDGE.

Man Sustained Broken Wrist and Sprained Back in Forty-Foot Fall.

William Bartlow, 28 years old and unmarried, employed by the Burlington railway as a bridge workman, was knocked from the top of the Nodaway river bridge, one mile south of Skidmore Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, by a chain fastened to a crane, and fell a distance of forty feet, lighting on a sandbar in the middle of the river. A physician was called and ascertained the extent of his injuries as being a broken wrist and a sprained back. It is not thought that the man's condition is serious unless internal injuries develop.

DAY SERVICE AT THE JUNCTION.

Some Talk About It at Burlington Junction by the Business Men.

The following is from the Burlington Junction Post:

M. E. Scovern, a representative of the Columbian Electric company of St. Joseph, was in Burlington Junction Friday talking with several of the business men relative to having day service from the light plant. Mr. Scovern will return here this week and take the matter up more in detail. In talking with a representative of this paper Mr. Scovern said that if every business or manufacturing firm in town that used gasoline power would change to electric there would be sufficient demand to support a day service. After the service was once running smoothly it would be used in many homes for irons, vacuum cleaners, pumping water and doing other work of that kind.

On Trip to Denver.

Misses Leatha and Edith Patterson of near Maryville, who have been attending the summer term of the Northwest Normal, will leave Sunday morning on a month's visit to Denver, Col., where they will be the guests of their aunt, Mrs. William Gile.

Col. Roosevelt has one advantage over his two opponents for the presidency. He didn't have to wait so long before he was notified of his nomination. In fact, there is reason to think that he rather expected it all along.

While the band stand is being built would be a good time to place some benches in the court house yard along the walks and give the people some place to sit besides on the fences and the curb stones.

The election is over. The next big thing is the Chautauqua, and then the street fair. Crops are fine, prosperity is smiling in the faces of all. Let everybody come out and have a good time. Then in November we will get together again and elect Woodrow Wilson president and be happy for four long years.

The progress of the new party will be watched with interest. Of all the numerous parties that have been organized to save the country, the Populists made the greatest headway. They carried a million votes and several states in 1892. No third party has done so well since. The great number of Republicans who have remained away from the primaries all over the country, coupled with the widespread dissatisfaction with Taft would indicate a considerable following for the Bull Moose ticket in November.

STAYING BY THE INS.

Of the thirteen Democratic members of congress from Missouri only one failed of re-nomination last Tuesday. This was Judge Daugherty of the Fifteenth district, who will have to give way to the brilliant young attorney Pearl Decker of Joplin. Judge Daugherty was serving his first term and was not well established.

Very few of the thirteen had any opposition for re-nomination, and were allowed to remain at their work unmolested. Judge Rucker of the Second district, C. W. Hamlin of the Seventh and W. P. Borland of the Fifth had nominal opposition, but each of them won by majorities ranging from three to five thousand. All of which goes to show that the people are getting over the idea that they must have a change frequently just to pass the pile around.

While Charles F. Booher of this district was given an interesting race by B. Raleigh Martin, he still maintains one distinction that comes to but few men. He continues to carry his own county practically unanimously. In the race this year he was given all but sixty of the Democratic votes cast in his county, and two years ago only thirty-one were cast against him there. This is a record not often duplicated.

After a residence of forty-two years in one county this is a remarkable testimonial to his integrity and hold on the public confidence. It is all the more remarkable in a man of the temperament of Charlie Booher. He is plain spoken, quick tempered and candid without reserve. He was three times prosecuting attorney of his county and three times mayor of his home town, and yet, with all these excellent opportunities to make enemies, only sixty men of his party were willing to vote against continuing him in the high place he now holds. There would have been ample consolation in this had he been beaten in the balance of the district.

Installing a Drainage System.

The first thing to do in starting to drain a field is to locate the proposed main tile drains and laterals where they will do the most good. Where the land is very flat or level, and the whole surface must be drained, a uniform system of parallel laterals leading directly to the larger main tile is the most advantageous. In the case of more rolling lands, with wet draws and ponds or low places where the water collects from the higher points, a main drain should be run up the lowest part of the field and sub-drains and laterals run from it into the wet spots. This type of land does not usually require as complete a system of tiling to thoroughly drain it as does flatter land.

After the proposed system of drains has been laid out, the next thing to do is to get the levels and estimate the cuts for the ditches. Here accurate work must be done, says J. M. Lefler in Farm and Home. A mistake in establishing the grade lines means a proportionate reduction in efficiency. Grade stakes are numbered and placed along the proposed drain either 50 or 100 feet apart, according to the surface of the field. Readings are then taken on these stakes. The cut or depth of the ditch at each stake is marked on it, and a separate record of the number of the stakes and corresponding cuts is kept for reference.

The ditch is now ready to be dug, and the accurate work comes in making the bottom of the ditch to grade. Grading by water, with the eye, or with a level and straight edge or triangle and plumb bob are neither accurate nor economical. These methods are all more or less guesswork. Two methods, however, which give very accurate work, are in common use for grading the ditch. They are the string and target methods.

STUBBS WINS OVER CURTIS

Governor Has Eighty-One Uncontested Legislative Districts.

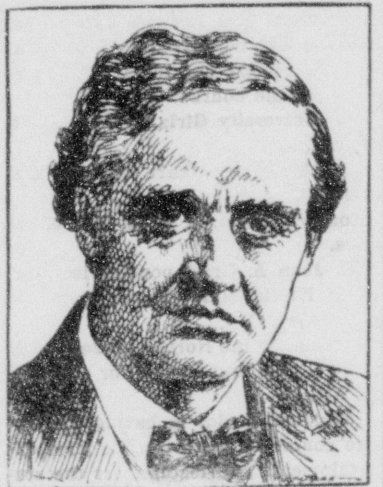

DOUBTFUL COUNTIES WATCHED

Senator Has Seventy-two Districts Un disputed and His Friends Charge Election Was Stolen.

Topeka, Aug. 9.—While Senator Curtis claims and appears to have a popular majority in Kansas, Gov. Stubbs has walked away with the Republican nomination for United States senator.

On the face of the returns available Curtis has carried the popular vote by 4,000 or 5,000 popular majority over Stubbs, but the governor has about 90 legislative districts out of the 165 and has the nomination.

Curtis Cries Fraud. The Curtis followers, while not yet acknowledging defeat, are setting up the cry of "Stop, thief." J. G. Slopecker, a staunch supporter of Curtis has openly charged that Stubbs was stealing the election and word was sent out from Curtis headquarters to every possible doubtful county to watch the official count to see that there were no more "thefts."

On the face of the returns received at various headquarters Gov. Stubbs has now 81 legislative districts uncontested by Curtis claims. Curtis has 72 districts not contested by Stubbs. It requires 83 districts to nominate. The returns available give Stubbs actually an even 90 districts.

Stubbs Gets Sedgwick. Returns from Sedgwick county at midnight substantiated Stubbs' claim to two legislative districts in the county, giving Curtis only one district. The supporters of Senator Curtis had claimed he had carried two districts in the county.

Returns so far received indicate the nominations of W. D. Ross for state superintendent and Earl Akers for state treasurer, and the renomination of John S. Dawson for attorney general on the Republican ticket. Ross is running behind both Akers and Dawson, owing to a three-cornered fight, but his majority is claimed to be 8,000. Because of the intense interest in the presidential electoral, gubernatorial and United States senatorial contests, returns were seldom reported on state offices. These returns have now begun to reach Topeka. Not all of the counties have been heard from but the nominations of Ross, Akers and Dawson have passed the doubtful state, according to figures of the Progressive headquarters.

ALLEGED GERMAN SPIES FREED

Five English Yachtmen Accused of Photographing Fortifications Proved Harmless.

Kiel, Germany, Aug. 9.—The five English yachtmen who were arrested August 4 at Eckernforde in Schleswig-Holstein on the charge of espionage, have just been released.

They were accused of taking photographs of important points along the Schleswig-Holstein coast, including the harbors and bays, but the police admit now that the suspected men seem only to have been guilty of foolhardy photography, of which they now know the risk.

England Won't Enter.

London, Aug. 9.—It is stated in well informed circles that the reason why Great Britain has not accepted yet the invitation to participate in the Panama-Pacific exposition lies in the failure of the United States to settle the question of the Panama canal tolls. Should the United States favor American shipping, it is said to be most likely that Great Britain will decline officially to participate.

Found Dead Son.

Erie, Kan., Aug. 9.—The boy who was killed by a train on the M. K. & T., near Erie, July 23, has been identified. W. E. Hollen, an Oklahoman working on a farm in Crawford county, in a conversation remarked he had a son wandering around "in this neck of the woods" somewhere. Hollen was shown a picture of the dead boy and recognized him at once as his son.

CHANCES FOR THE STUDENT

No Reason Why Their Opportunities Should Not Be Extended in Many Directions.

We have student mechanics in all the large factories and student miners in all the great mines. There are student trainmen on all the trains and student superintendents in all the offices.

Soon we shall have student senators in the senate and student representatives in the house. A student judge will sit on every bench and student attorneys will assist every lawyer.

Student social learners will attend every function and student soldiers will accompany the troops. The White House will have to be enlarged to make room for about 1,000,000 student presidents, for nearly every mother in the United States will want to send her son to the White House to learn how to be president.

Student brides and student grooms will attend every wedding ceremony and student ministers will accompany the minister on his parochial calls.

It might be interesting to know just what a student lover's privilege would be, but there is no doubt that a few lessons are sadly needed by some young persons.

Student poets would with advantage learn the gentle art of standing off the landlady and student bill collectors would find it advantageous to learn how best to land at the bottom of the stairs.—Chicago News.

Neatly Evaded Apology.

One day, Beckmann, the comic actor, was induced to take off a well-known newspaper editor, Frankel by name, in one of the characters he was representing in Berlin. He performed his task so cleverly that at the close the audience broke out into loud calls for Frankel. The journalist brought an action, and Beckmann was condemned to go to the house of the insulted party and there beg his pardon in the presence of witnesses. At the hour appointed Frankel sat in the circle of his family, together with a number of relatives and friends whom he had convened for the occasion, waiting the arrival of the delinquent. He tarried long, and half an hour had passed in weary suspense, when, at last, the door opened, and Beckmann put his head in and asked: "Does Mr. Meir live here?" "Oh, no," answered Frankel, "he lives next door." "Ah, then I beg your pardon," said the actor, and hastily withdrew, having thus acquitted himself of the imposed penance to the great annoyance of Frankel, and the intense amusement of the assembled witnesses.

Borrowing Books.

The practice of borrowing books is essentially an evil one in those who can afford to own books, and public libraries serve to encourage and foster the evil, though they are of very great value to the poor student. We think that, upon general principles, people should own the books they read. We believe heartily in buying books, reading books and keeping books. As a reference a public library serves an admirable purpose, and in many instances it is of undoubted advantage to the people. But one that would be surely profited by books should own them if he can, and should have them for companions continually around him.—Eugene Field.

MRS. NANCY HARSH

REMARKABLE WOMAN OF STRONG MIND AND CLEAR MEMORY.

ENJOYED A LONG LIFE

She Ate Freely and Believed in Keeping Warm and Dry, and Outlived All Early Acquaintance.

The funeral of Mrs. Nancy Harsh, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Donlin in Hopkins, on Wednesday, was held at Creston, Ia. this Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the home of her son, Senator J. B. Harsh. The remains were taken from Hopkins to Creston on the Burlington noon train Thursday.

The cause of her death was an attack of stone in the bladder soon after she had passed the 102nd mile stone in life. It was the first bad attack that she had experienced in many years.

However, medical treatment cleared this ailment away, but she never fully regained her usual strength, and as a result of her weakened condition she fell one day as she was coming out of her room, sustaining an injury to her left leg. After this accident she took to her bed and was bedfast up to the time of her death. One remarkable fact is that she retained fully her mental faculties to the end, recognizing those who entered her room, and interesting herself in the affairs of the home.

Mrs. Nancy Harsh was born in the town of Washington, Pa., on the 14th day of June, 1810, and was one of the descendants of William and Mary McKay. William McKay, the father, was born and reared in Maryland, but was descended from parents in whose veins flowed both the Scotch and Irish strains which have played such a prominent part in the history of the United States. Her mother came from the County Down, in Ireland, and was born on the banks of the Ban river, or as it is called in that country, on the Ban Water. Her mother left her native land when 16 year old and came to the "land of the free and the home of the brave." Mrs. Nancy Harsh was one of five sisters, and there were no brothers in the family.

Mrs. Harsh was born at a time in the history of the country when the epoch was memorable for events, and when she was yet a small child going to school. General Lafayette made the remarkable tour of the country which has passed into history. It was when he revisited the United States as a guest of the nation, and in the course of his tour he visited Washington, Pa., and was given an ovation. One of the features of the reception tendered to him was when a bevy of school girls preceded him and strewed flowers along his path. There were twenty of these girls and one of the number was Nancy McKay, and to the day of her death she remembered the event with pleasure and relates with great gusto that although a number of the girls were kissed by General Lafayette she refused to kiss the general, although he offered that honor.

Mrs. Harsh lived in Washington until 1833, when she was married to Daniel Harsh, and in the year 1837 she removed with her husband to Ohio, which was at that time the Mecca of all western tourists, and although a virgin wilderness in great part, offered opportunities to the pioneer which brought to its confines many from what was then known as the east. Mrs. Harsh's husband died in 1848, leaving her with six children, none of them of an age where they could be of much assistance to her in the battle with the stern necessities of those pioneer days, but undaunted by her privations Mrs. Harsh gathered her brood about her and in the same year moved to Illinois, settling in Bureau county, where by industry and frugality she raised her family.

In 1861 she moved to Iowa, settling near Creston, Iowa, and part of her family accompanied her. In those days the railroads did not cover the state to the extent as at present, and the nearest market point was Winter set, and trips were made to Ottumwa, and to Council Bluffs by wagon for supplies. The hardships of those pioneer days can hardly be realized by the present generation, but Mrs. Harsh was a woman of unyielding will, purpose and unflinching courage and in spite of the discouragements of a pioneer life she toiled for success and won it.

Mrs. Harsh has been since youth a woman of intense religious convictions, and early in youth while still a resident of Washington, Pa., she joined the Presbyterian church and was a consistent and practical christian. When the family moved to Illinois the family found themselves in a community composed largely of Congregationalists and joined the Congregational church at Providence, Ill. In the early days she again united with the Presbyterian church at Afton, Ia., and while living on the farm near Creston she was one of the organizers and supporters of the Pilgrim Congregational church, which is still in existence there. At Creston she joined the Congregational church by letter.

To Mrs. Harsh was born seven children, four of whom are living. The living are Phillip L., who lives at Eugene, Oregon; Mary M. Donlin, a resident of Hopkins; James B., of Creston, president of the Creston National bank, and Andrew F., of Lowell, Nebr. The dead are: William M., who passed away at Beverly, Mass.; Alexander, who went to Illinois at the breaking out of the war and died during that great struggle and gave up his life for the Union; and Jennie, who was married to a Mr. Bardell, and died a few years afterwards, at Castle Rock, Colo. Besides the four children she leaves nine grand children and eight great grand children. They are as follows:

Grandchildren—Mary Sargent, Hopkins, Mo.; Ada Hewiee, Burlington, Ia.; W. J. Donlin, Council Bluffs, Ia.; F. D. Harsh, Des Moines, Ia.; Wm. Oliver, Russell, Kan.; Mary Harsh-Atwood, Eugene, Ore.; Ed Oliver, Waukegan, Kan.; H. F. Harsh, Lowell, Nebr.; Grace S. Harsh, Creston, Ia.

Great-grandchildren—Edna Sargent, McMaster, Hopkins, Mo.; Frank Sargent, Hopkins, Mo.; Lois Sargent, Hopkins, Mo.; Josephine Hewiee, Burlington, Ia.; Nancy Harsh, Des Moines, Ia.; Margaret Atwood, Eugene, Ore.; Nellie Harsh Lowell, Nebr.; Andrew Harsh, Lowell, Nebr.

A few years ago Mrs. Harsh moved to Hopkins and made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Donlin.

Mrs. Harsh, unlike the majority of people who have reached a venerable age, lived in the present, always taking the liveliest interest in her surroundings and keeping in touch with the best of modern thought and with up-to-date improvements. Her mental faculties were always bright and she was a veritable encyclopedia of valuable information and was rarely at fault in regard to recalling dates and particulars of happenings of moment, her recollections of prominent persons who have lived and filled the stage of human action during her life were vivid and entertaining and she discoursed of epochs in the history of the country with a vigor and an insight into details which was little short of remarkable. So much was she in touch with modern thought to the end and of such vigorous mental power that her relatives hardly ever realized that she was past the century mark.

On the day of her 102nd birthday she was asked how it felt to be 102 years old and she replied she failed to realize the difference between her feelings at that time and what they were years ago. But she added that at times she felt somewhat lonesome as she had outlived all relatives whom she had known in other days, not having to her knowledge a single relative outside of her children, but what had preceded her to the other shore. She could recall hundreds of public men whom she had seen grow into prominence, but they were all dead, and of all her cousins and other relatives of her youthful memories not one to her knowledge was alive today. She said she noted that she failed to take as lively an interest in happenings as she once did, and especially the death of acquaintances failed to affect her to the same extent as in former years, probably because death to her had become such an inevitable conclusion of friendship and acquaintanceship.

Her peculiarities in old age were strong will, great determination physical strength, great endurance and "up-to-dateness" in all things. She had, like all Scotch-Irish people, decided opinions.

To show her bent of mind, she was during the Japanese Russian war on the side of the Russian, and on one occasion when visited by her son, Senator J. B. Harsh, she drew him into an argument on the subject, and she marshalled all the reasons that she could be given to sustain her views. She was an ardent republican.

In matters hygienic this woman of one hundred and two years of age went contrary to the generally accepted rules. The fresh air fad she despised. She always shut herself up in a tight room and in the day time she always kept it as hot as she could stand it in the house. She was never known to have a bedroom window open, and even slept at times with her head covered with a pillow. She was a believer in heat and dryness, claiming that if the body was kept warm and dry, nature will cure almost any malady.

She was also a coffee drinker, although she did nothing to excess. Her favorite meat was pork, and her eating rule was to eat plenty. When she felt herself getting out of sorts or getting sick the first thing she did was to eat.

She had a memory that was something to be proud of. She had a head of hair that any woman might envy, and it was hardly white. It was what you call iron gray, and she had lots of it.

A year or two ago they had a centennial celebration in her girlhood town of Washington, Pa., and they wrote to her for some reminiscences. She recalled things that they had all forgotten back there. She located a hill upon which a man was hung that had been in dispute. She mentioned many things that were new even to the old inhabitants there.

News of her death will be received with sorrow not only by the people of this community in which she resided so long, but in communities in three other states, she being a pioneer of four states, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois and Iowa.

Protection from loss by windstorms, fire or lightning is business, either in country or city. You owe it to yourself and family. Consult me now for special rates and terms, or phone me and I will call.

CHARLES HYSLOP,
General Agent.

Mrs. J. M. Davis of Hopkins came to the city Friday morning to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Otis until Saturday.

What can you do?

Step into any bank or business establishment in the country and ask for a position, and the above question is the first thing that you will get for an answer. Hard-headed, practical and successful men, who pay their money for help have always been of the same opinion—and that is, that an employee who KNOWS SOMETHING is useless unless he can DO SOMETHING. It is our business to train you to DO SOMETHING as well as to KNOW SOMETHING.

Our school and our students have a reputation for KNOWING and DOING. "THOROUGHNESS" and "EFFICIENCY" have ever been our watchwords. We waste no time on useless studies. Life is too short. What we teach is PRACTICAL. Other schools may train you for the various trades or professions; WE TRAIN YOU FOR LIFE. No matter what you do or where you go, a BUSINESS EDUCATION is worth the money and more. But be sure you really get BUSINESS Training. We say you cannot get it anywhere but in a BUSINESS COLLEGE; that you cannot get it in any school where a little of everything is taught, and where PRACTICAL BUSINESS METHODS are unknown. BUSINESS TRAINING is our only business; it is NOT a "side line." THE SUCCESS OF OUR STUDENTS IS THE PROOF OF OUR SUPERIORITY.

Bigger and Better

We say without fear of successful contradiction that The Maryville Business College is Bigger and Better than any similar institution in this section of the Middle West. Starting with a dozen students just six years ago, it now requires more than 10,000 square feet of floor space, and owns its own $25,000 building at the northeast corner of the court house square, both floors of which are equipped completely in every detail. Our students are employed from Maine to California and from Minnesota to Florida. They get good positions, and we want you to notice that they "stick." Joe McGinness was a country boy living east of Maryville. He took a course in Bookkeeping at an expense of $50. He is now Division Auditor on the Northwestern Railroad, Huron, S. D., salary $150 per month. We have a thousand "Joes"—to be exact, 1,237—whose combined salaries in 1912 will be more than a million dollars. We can give you the names and most of the figures.

This year, beginning September 3 (Tuesday), will mark the opening of our most successful year—the biggest and the best—in our career. From all sources we are receiving inquiries as we never did before. We have the best chance to do business we ever had, and we pledge ourselves to make this the Great Big Successful Year—to enroll more students, to have more graduates, and to add to our reputation for "THOROUGHNESS," "EFFICIENCY" and "RESULTS."

We are specialists

We teach nothing but business subjects. We name them for your information: Bookkeeping (Single and Double Entry), Banking, Business Arithmetic, Grammar and Letter Writing, Spelling, Rapid Calculation, Penmanship, Commercial Law, Shorthand, Typewriting, Briefing and Filing, Billing, Adding Machine, Etc. You will notice there is not a "dead" one in the list. We are Specialists. We do nothing else. We probably could—but what's the use in wasting time.

In conclusion, we want your enrollment. We believe that we deserve your patronage. We are a "self-made" and "self-sustaining" school. You pay no taxes to keep us going. You pay no "incidental fees;" you pay us $10 for each and every month, with good discounts on long-time enrollments. You will never buy it from us for less; you cannot duplicate it anywhere else for the money. YOU SAVE TIME WITH US, AND TIME IS WORTH MONEY TO ANY AMBITIOUS YOUNG PERSON (to say nothing of the man who pays the board bills). SPEND TEN OR TWELVE MONTHS WITH US, AND YOU ARE DONE. IT WILL DOUBLE YOUR EARNING CAPACITY; "IT WILL PREPARE YOU FOR LIFE." We are not adding any special departments to put anybody "out of business;" we are not fighting any school; WE ARE ATTENDING TO OUR OWN BUSINESS.

SEVERE ON HIS OWN WORK

Artist Critic at Least Proved That He Was Above Suspicion of Playing Favorites.

Granyille Redmond has arrived in the foremost ranks of California's artists. Being recognized himself, after years of striving, he feels competent to pass upon the merits of his contemporary artists.

Recently he left a picture on exhibition at a San Francisco gallery. In the course of the week he went to the place to see how the sale was progressing.

In company with Morcom, the picture dealer, and a few art students, he fell to discussing the pictures.

Every artist therein represented fell under the stroke of his hammer—Kelth, Hill, Yard, Judson, Burgdorff, Short, Best, Peters, Latimer, Hansen—all came in for their share of cutting criticism. A word or two at most sufficed to finish them. Redmond made his comments the more substantial by writing them on the margin of the catalogue.

"And this," said Morcom, pointing at last to the picture painted by Redmond, "what do you think of this?" Redmond was game. He seized his paper and, quick as a flash, wrote down his criticism: "Damned rotten."

PERCENTAGE TO THE GOOD

Statement, However, Not Altogether Reassuring to the Owner of a Heavy Car.

The lightning was flashing and the thunder was crashing, and along with them were rain, hail, and a wind that threatened fairly to blow off the top of the universe. Hackley urged the car forward at a terrific pace, seeking shelter, and at last, as he rounded a turn in the road the welcome sign, Garage, was to be seen a hundred yards ahead. He stopped in front of it, and the long, lank countryman in charge swung open the doors.

"Geel!" said Hackley, dubiously, as he looked inside and took in the sad fact that this, like many other so-called garages, was nothing but an old-time barn, transformed into its present glory by a coat of paint and a swinging sign. "How about that floor of yours, mister?"

"It's a darned good floor," replied the owner, chewing on a wisp of straw.

"No doubt," said Hackley, "but is it safe?" "I reckon it is," said the proprietor, glancing proudly within. "I've had thirteen automobiles in here a'reddy this season, and no more'n six on 'em's fell threw."—Harper's Weekly.

AGRICULTURE FOR GIRLS.

Women Farmers' Club Believes Girls Should Study Agriculture—Offers $25 Cash Scholarship.

The Missouri Women Farmers' club has started a movement to interest girls in the study of agriculture—not merely caring for flowers or managing a vegetable garden, but real agriculture involving a knowledge of soils, crops, live stock, fruit, poultry and dairy products.

In order to start the movement the club offers a $25 cash scholarship in the short course in agriculture to the Missouri woman over 18 years of age who will write the best essay of from 450 to 800 words on the subject "Why Women Should Study Agriculture." This should pay one-half the expense incurred in one term of the two-year winter course in agriculture.

Every young woman who would like to take advantage of this offer should write for a copy of the rules governing the contest to A. J. Meyer, superintendent of short courses, Columbia, Mo.

Mrs. Stella Lawson went to Bolckow Thursday evening to visit her cousin, Mrs. William Manorgan.

Suggestion for hot weather—It is timely to make suggestions concerning the dangerous maladies common to hot weather and offer means of prevention and cure of sickness and accidents common to this period of the year. Do not underestimate the importance of this article. Keep it. You may need it at any moment.

These are the days when the fool-killer should be busy and get after the one who points the gun that "is not loaded" at you, and his twin brother who rocks the boat to be funny. If they would but try this when alone all would be well.

At this season, keep cool, mind and body. When it is hot one should be neither overworked or overheated. Never over-eat. Dress in keeping with the weather. Bathe often. Use sanitary means to keep free from anything which is liable to breed disease and you will live longer and better than does the person who fails to observe these rules of health.

Sunstroke—Be careful not to encourage sunstroke. Fatal results often follow exposure to sun heat on days when the atmosphere is humid. Avoid as far as possible getting into the direct rays of the sun or becoming over-heated. Do not drink alcoholic liquors nor eat much of hearty foods. One has often warning, such as loss of appetite, headaches, and general indisposition. The heart's action is often weak and breathing difficult. These suggestions should be heeded. The person should seek a shady, cool place, bathe the temples and wrists in cool water, keep quiet and rest.

In the event of sunstroke, place the patient in the shade, loosening clothing; give plenty of air; do not allow people to crowd about. Bathe the head, neck, chest and hands in warm water and relieve the heart and lungs of the internal congestion. In other words try to get the blood to the surface. Use hot infusions, of red pepper, or ginger, or mustard plaster on the spine, extremities and on the stomach.

Convalescence is usually slow, and the patient is much more liable to repeated attack than before. Sprinkle water on the face, and apply smelling salts to the nostrils, then place in cool, shady place for a few hours.

Sour stomach, heartburn—Due to acidity from sour foods, or the acidity caused by fermentation of foods; an excellent remedy is a tablet composed of charcoal, pepsin, ginger and magnesia, and a half a cup of water. Do not eat candy, cakes, etc., for a time at least.

Dysentery (acute stage)—Indicated remedies, powdered ipecac, twenty grains in four ounces of flaxseed tea. Keep patient quiet in bed. Place hot applications to abdomen and feet. After acute stage injections of thin boiled starch are beneficial.

Summer Food—In hot weather you will find in rice cooked in various ways a most satisfactory article of diet. It is an excellent substitute for the heavy and unhealthy meats often indulged in. It is nourishing, and particularly healthful. Get used to eating rice in some of its very palatable forms of cookery. Do not be afraid that it will not sustain you, for it will, and it will be particularly desirable in hot weather, as it does not tax the digestive organs. Remember that in China, over 400,000,000 people subsist chiefly on rice. A rice pudding with raisins is a good dish, which is sufficient itself to constitute a meal.

Keep a bottle of peroxide of hydrogen handy to prevent infection from the numberless causes present in the summer time for cuts, wounds, scratches, sores, stings of insects, rusty nails, or anything in which the skin is abraded or the flesh punctured, allowing germs to infect the wound.

Club Notes.

Dear Doctor: I have been reading with interest your Home Health Club articles and would like to know what you can say in regard to my own case. I am a man 54 years old. My general health has not been good for some years, especially the last two years. I have never been down bed-fast, but am weak and rather frail, subject to rheumatism and stomach trouble. Have headache a great deal, am easily exhausted, appetite hard to control. What I wish to speak of more particularly is a roaring in my head. For about four weeks I have had a constant roaring, sounding like the hum of a telephone pole, in my head. It annoys me very much. I went to the doctor and had my ears examined, but he found nothing wrong; he said that the trouble came from a general run-down condition. If I have not made my case plain, I will write fuller description.

M. H. R.

You tell the story quite plainly. The entire cause of your suffering is in your stomach, not only a radical change of diet, but absolutely control of your appetite must occur before results will appear. I would, if I were to direct your specific treatment, first outline a complete and specific dietary, but before beginning its use, I would clean out the entire alimentary canal, by a fast of from three to six days, or until your tongue would present a clean and healthy appearance. Then begin the new diet in a very careful manner, and you would soon begin to gain both strength and flesh. The roaring in the head would quickly disappear. Of course a careful and thorough physical examination is always advisable in such cases as these are sometimes causes for illness which can be found in no other way.

FLAMES KILLED HAITI'S RULER

President Leconte Perished in Fire Which Destroyed Palace.

DEAD AND INJURED NUMBER 400

Ammunition Stored in Cellar Exploded —Executive's Body Cannot be Recovered—Successor Already Named.

Port au Prince, Haiti, Aug. 9.—Gen. Cincinnatus Leconte, president of the Republic of Haiti, perished in a fire which destroyed the national palace. It was caused by an explosion of the powder magazine attached to the palace.

The explosion occurred at 3:15 o'clock in the morning and the shock shattered the palace.

Fire followed quickly and the palace, a wooden structure, was consumed within half an hour. There were a great number of explosions of munitions of war which had been stored in the cellar below.

Other Houses Damaged. All the houses around the palace were greatly damaged but as the palace itself was isolated, the firemen succeeded in their efforts to localize the fire.

The members of the family of the president, all of whom were in the palace at the time, were saved, but President Leconte himself perished. Many palace attendants were killed, and it is estimated the casualty list will reach 400, killed and injured.

The first explosion was followed by others when the fire reached the cellars of the palace where a great quantity of ammunition was stored. So great was the force of the explosion that a number of small cannon, fragments of iron and shells were thrown for great distances in all directions.

Body Entirely Destroyed. When the fire which was confined to the palace, was extinguished the structure was a mass of ruins from which it will be impossible to recover the body of the president.

No disorders have occurred. The military authorities are maintaining order in the town.

Both the chamber and the senate were called in national assembly and at the joint session in the afternoon Gen. Tancrede Auguste, senator and former minister of public works, was named as president of Haiti to succeed Gen. Cincinnatus Leconte.

The cause of the explosion has not been explained.

Jefferson City, Aug. 9.—The question of permitting wreckers to demolish the old state capitol building is in dispute. The commissioners of the new capitol asked that the board of commissioners of the permanent seat of government delegate them authority to wreck the old capitol at once, and authority over the grounds to construct temporary quarters for the legislature.

Acting Gov. Gmelch and State Treasurer Cowgill protested against the demolition of the old building at this time, as plans for the new building cannot be adopted before September 16. Auditor Gordon and Secretary of State Roach voted to give the commissioners all the authority they asked. Attorney General Major, the other member of the board, was not present.

Meantime, while the legislative committee has awarded a contract for building temporary quarters for the general assembly, the building is without a location, as well as without available funds to pay for its construction.

Atchison Has $100,000 Fire.

Atchison, Kan., Aug. 9.—The factory and the warehouse of the Atchison Oatmeal and Cereal company, a branch of the United Oatmeal company of Chicago, were destroyed by fire. The plant was valued at $100,000. It was covered by $75,000 insurance. Lightning started the flames.

Gen. Orozco Wants Peace.

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 9.—Gen. Orozco has submitted a peace proposal to the Madero government, but the terms are not divulged. It is no longer denied by the rebels that they held a conference with Gen. Hernandez, minister of fomento, at a point opposite the El Paso smelter Wednesday.

A School for German Jailers.

HUNDREDS ENTOMBED IN MINE

MANY BODIES RECOVERED FROM GERMAN DISASTER.

Explosion of Fire Damp Imperilled Lives of 650—Flames Keep Rescuers Back.

Bochum, Germany, Aug. 9.—A mining disaster which imperilled the lives of 650 pit men occurred in the Lorraine pit in the vicinity of the village of Gerthe.

Many of the men were rescued but at a late hour it was learned that 103 had been killed.

Forty bodies had been recovered and the rescue parties were unable to enter the gallery in which the fire damp explosion occurred, where it was believed from 50 to 100 men were still entombed and had almost certainly perished.

A large number of those rescued were suffering from severe injuries and it was expected that many of them could not recover.

The rescue detachments which did such good work at the time of the French mine disaster at Courrières near Lens, March 10, 1906, when 1,230 miners were killed, arrived here early in the afternoon, but were unable to penetrate the galleries owing to the flames and the poisonous gases.

SUFFRAGISTS MENACE ENGLAND

Five Year Sentence of Two Women Causes Apprehension of Attempts at Assassination.

London, Aug. 9.—Suffragists who have distinguished themselves by past demonstrations of militancy are all under police surveillance in anticipation of retaliation by the women for the sentencing of Mrs. Mary Leigh and Miss Gladys Evans to five years' penal servitude for an attempt to burn the Theater Royal in Dublin.

The militants said freely that the government's resort to such extreme measures has precipitated a crisis and that the country may be prepared for anything. The police know that these threats are not empty and it is unofficially admitted at Bow street that the liveliest apprehension is felt there of attempts at assassination.

In making actual convicts for long terms out of two educated and refined women whose offense was, after all, most persons agree, a political one, the courts seem to have gone too far for popular approval. It is widely predicted that the home office will have to pardon the Dublin prisoners in deference to this sentiment.

PLENTY OF FEED BUT NO CATTLE

Dean Webster, of Kansas Agricultural College, Worried Over Condition in West.

Manhattan, Kan., Aug. 9.—In direct contrast to conditions last year western Kansas will have plenty of feed this fall and winter, but nothing to feed. That serious shortage of live stock—a 60 to 65 per cent decrease in many places, caused by the lack of feed last winter—is the subject of grave concern to Dean Webster of the Kansas agricultural college and four department heads who have just returned from a 1,500-mile trip by motor car through 25 western counties. Two weeks were spent investigating conditions.

VOTE ON BIG ROAD BOND ISSUE

Buchanan County Will Decide Saturday Proposition Involving $1,000,000 Expenditure.

St. Joseph, Mo., Aug. 9.—Buchanan county will vote Saturday on the proposed million dollar bond issue for good roads. Despite keen interest in the primary campaign ended Tuesday, sentiment throughout the country has been aroused for the bond issue and the county has been thoroughly covered with arguments in its favor.

Under the state law the county court may tax property as high as 25 cents on the $100 valuation for good roads. The tax is now 15 cents. The county court has announced that it will raise the tax to the limit if the bond issue fails.

Made Bogus Coin in Prison.

Salem, Ore., Aug. 9.—An attempt to pass a counterfeit coin in several stores by John Lewis, a negro trusty at the state penitentiary, led investigators to find that the coins were manufactured by J. J. Stanley, a convict paintshop worker. Plaster of paris molds were found in his possession.

FREE CANAL FOR AMERICAN SHIPS

Senate Makes Further Concessions in Panama Ditch.

FOREIGN BUILT VESSELS ALSO

Amendment Authorizes American Owners of Boats Built Abroad to Register Here Under Certain Restrictions.

Washington, Aug. 9.—Further important concessions to American shipping were made by the senate through amendments to the Panama canal bill.

The free toll provision to American coastwise ships, already indorsed by the senate, was supplemented by a qualified free toll provision for American vessels engaged in the foreign trade.

Foreign Ships Invited.

A still more important amendment adopted by the senate holds out practically an unqualified invitation to foreign built ships owned by Americans to hoist the American flag and register as American vessels.

This amendment, offered by Senator Williams, and adopted by a large vote, would authorize American owners of foreign built ships, now compelled to sail under foreign flags, to bring their vessels under American registry provided they engaged only in foreign trade.

Fight Railroad Control.

The senate worked at night on the railroad control feature of the Panama bill. Senator Bristow opposed the plan of railroad controlled vessels suggested by the senate committee and urged the adoption of the plan passed by the house which would give the interstate commerce commission jurisdiction.

One important restriction was placed upon the Williams free ship amendment just adopted. This provided that no foreign built ship admitted to American registry should be allowed to participate in mail carrying contracts unless it was constructed with particular reference to speedy and economical conversion into an auxiliary naval cruiser.

Made Provision for War.

A somewhat similar restriction was made upon the granting of the free toll privilege to American vessels engaged in foreign trade. The provision adopted by the senate specified that owners of vessels engaged in foreign trade must agree to sell their ships to the United States in time of war or other emergencies in order to be exempt from the payment of tolls when passing through the canal.

Agreement was reached late at night to take a final vote on the Panama canal administration bill and all amendments to it immediately.

JEALOUSY CAUSED DEATH OF TWO

Bodies of Young Girls Found Near Cabin Home—Missing Relative Suicides.

Weaverville, Cal., Aug. 9.—Kate Gould, 13 years old, and Elba Gould, 16 years old, sisters, were found murdered at their home at Steiny's Flat. They had been shot. The cabin where the body of Elba Gould was found showed that the girl had made a desperate struggle for life. The body of the younger girl was found 50 feet away.

The girls were daughters of Mrs. William Lorenz by a former marriage. George Lorenz, brother of William Lorenz, is said to have been insanely jealous of Elba Gould. He was left at home with the girls and had disappeared but later committed suicide while posing was hunting for him. His body was found half a mile from the place of the murder.

SUFFRAGIST WOULD SERVE FREE

Spokane Woman, if Elected, Will Accept No Pay for Services as State Representative.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 9.—Mrs. May Arkwright Hutton, suffragist leader and member of the Washington delegation to the Democratic national convention, announced she would be a candidate for nomination for state representative on the Democratic ticket.

Mrs. Hutton, in making the announcement, declared that, if elected, she would refuse to accept pay for her services as a lawmaker, as it would cost her no more to live at the state capital than at home. She feels that she can well afford to give 60 days of her time for the honor of exercising the prerogative of an American citizen.

Stillwell Quits Trust Company.

New York, Aug. 9.—Arthur E. Stillwell resigned as president and director of the United States & Mexican Trust company at the quarterly meeting of the directors. E. Quincy Smith, first vice-president, was elected to succeed him.

SALUTED COLORS HE LOVED

Patriotic Action of Old Man Made Deep Impression on Soldiers From the Front.

There is so much that is painful and distressing about war that every soldier who has served at the front must bring back with him many memories that he would gladly forget. But there are gracious and touching incidents as well, one of which a Companion subscriber who fought through the Civil war thus recalls:

"Just after the second Battle of Bull Run and that of Chantilly, while the Union army lay near Alexandria and Fairfax Court House, a certain Massachusetts battery was ordered back to Washington to help garrison the capital.

"On the outskirts of Alexandria the column was halted, with its head opposite a little story-and-a-half cottage surrounded by an unpainted picket fence. As the halt was ordered, the door of the cottage opened, and old, white-haired man came down the steps toward the road with his hand raised toward the flag was was carried as the guidon of the battery.

"The color-bearer released the staff from its socket and lowered it to the ground, and the old man, who had by this time come up to the line, drew the flag toward him, reverently raised it to his lips, turned, and without a word walked back into house.

The incident made a deep impression on the men who saw it. It meant more to those soldiers, who were bearing the brunt of a hard campaign, than a score of eloquent addresses on patriotism and the love of country. Who the old man was we never knew." —Youth's Companion.

SMALL BOY GOOD REASONER

Present-Day Conditions Applied to Biblical Incident Showed Power of Deduction.

The Sunday school class of an Indianapolis church, which was made up of small boys, was discussing Lot and how he came to be in Sodom. The teacher told how Abram and Lot had decided to separate and take their flocks and servants in opposite directions and how Lot, probably in his selfishness, had taken what he regarded as the best land, which lay in the direction of Sodom, which was afterward destroyed by fire. The teacher, a man, did not believe in clothing the talk concerning biblical characters in mystery or phrases that the small boys could not understand, but tried to make them realize that the men of biblical times were subject to the same conditions and influences as are people of today.

"Now, boys," he said, "Lot was not a real bad man. He didn't plunge into the wickedness of Sodom immediately. After he left Abram he, no doubt, lived with his family and servants in his tents far outside of the wicked city of Sodom. Then he began to go to the city occasionally. Then he went oftener, until he came to believe that it was a good place to live in. When the city was destroyed the angels of the Lord led him out of the city."

"Now, James," said the teacher, "I want you tell me in your own way how you think Lot came to be in Sodom."

"He—he lived in the country at first," replied James, "and didn't come to town at all. Then he got to coming just once a while—on—on Saturday nights when everybody got paid. And then he got to coming through the week, to the ball game, or things like that. And one day, maybe, he came home and said: 'Well, I saw a nice vacant house in Sodom this afternoon and I told the transfer man to come out tomorrow and get our stuff. That's the way I think Lot came to live in Sodom,' concluded James, as he gave a long sigh and sat down.

TRY GIVING JOY TO OTHERS

Shedding of Sunshine Will Be Found to Have Good Effect on Those Who Practice It.

It was Mr. Barrie who quaintly said: "Women who bring sunshine into the life of others cannot keep it from themselves."

That is a recipe to learn and apply. If you will not try to be a spreader of joy for the joy it gives do so from selfish motives.

Girls may think this farfetched. Their one thought is to snatch at joy for themselves. It takes experience, perhaps bitter experience, to learn that the joy that counts most is the one with a rebound. Like a rubber ball, the harder you throw it the quicker it returns.

The girl who starts on a joy quest for herself cannot say: "I'll be nice to poor Maria, she has had such a stupid time," and then go about her sunshine shedding with patronizing airs. She may give joy, but the chances are that her patronage will be felt and resented. The sunshine that counts glows in the heart and must come out.

One need not go into sunshine societies to bask in the rays of joy giving. Nor need that sunshine be for outsiders. Sunshine-shedding, like charity, can profitably begin at home. It is not so exciting, perhaps, to try to brighten the lives of mother or small brother or sister as it is to be a Lady Bountiful, but the reflex action is quite as strong.

Try shedding sunshine wherever you are. Do not let a day pass without doing some little thing to brighten that day for some one else, and you will find your day more joyful.
